21 January 2013

Mr. Secretary-General,

I have the honour to inform you that the Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People will convene the United Nations Seminar on Assistance to the Palestinian People, on 27 and 28 February 2013 at the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) Headquarters in Rome. The theme of the Seminar will be "Assistance to the Palestinians — challenges and opportunities in the new reality of a State under occupation". The Seminar is being organized in keeping with General Assembly resolutions 67/20 and 67/21 of 30 November 2012.

The Seminar will review the impact of the Israeli occupation and practices on the socio-economic and humanitarian situation in the West Bank, including East-Jerusalem, and Gaza Strip. Furthermore, it will look at the financial and developmental challenges and opportunities stemming from the UN admission of the State of Palestine. Finally, the Seminar will also address the role of the international donor community in mobilizing and coordinating the assistance in light of the recent political developments.

On behalf of the Committee, I have the honour to invite you, Sir, to attend the United Nations Seminar on Assistance to the Palestinian People and to address its opening session on 27 February 2013, at 10:00 am. We attach great importance to your presence at this important event. However, if your schedule of commitments does not permit you to attend personally, it would be greatly appreciated if you could designate an official at the highest level to represent you.
