Subject: Upcoming Visit

If all goes well I hope to see you mid-morning, Sunday, Dec. 18th. I enclose a copy of my last memo to the SG. I am told it was "Well received". I look forward to hearing your views. Let me underline that a successful SG initiative requires DPA, DHA, HCR cooperation. This is probably more of a New York problem, but I would like to talk to you about it.

I have tried to call you, but don't seem to have the right combination. Got through to Dr. Kabia once.

Warm regards,

Bob Dillon

He is coming on 18th.

CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM

TO: Secretary General

FROM: Robert S. Dillon

DATE: December 7, 1994

SUBJECT: UN Initiative in Regard to Rwanda-Centered Crisis

As you know, I will be talking to President Museveni in Kampala on December 17 followed by a quick trip to Kigali and then back to the United States. Sometime shortly after my return, I believe I should meet with you to go over next steps.

My thoughts for your consideration are:

- The Refugee Conference being planned by HCR should be viewed as part of a continuum toward a higher level political meeting involving the heads of state of Rwanda, Burundi, Zaire, Tanzania, and Uganda.
- The ultimate end of this process is not simply a meeting; it is the beginnings of political reconciliation in the area and a return of most refugees to their homes.
- ? Almost surely, shuttle diplomacy will be involved in the process (I am willing to undertake it, but my considered first choice would be a respected African leader or senior diplomat from outside the immediate region).
- The process should be a joint DPA/DHA/HCR enterprise with DPA having the lead role in New York.
- No We also need to start talking to representatives of the former Rwandan government in Zaire and in Europe.

When I see you, we should have a pretty good idea of the willingness of all governments to participate in the process and of their general views on the crisis centered in Rwanda. What we will not know is what they really expect of each other. That will take some probing, and it is the reason that further shuttle diplomacy will almost surely have to be part of the process.

Will this help relieve donor fatigue? I think so, but that is not entirely predictable. Washington becomes less predictable by the minute.

Best regards.

Robert Dillon

Message:

Sir,

I called your Office earlier this morning in order to convey to you personally the intentions of Judge Goldstone who asked me to prepare his first official visit to Rwanda. Your support is obviously essential and your good offices could pave the way for fruitful meetings with the highest Government authorities.

While I wait for your return call, I am sending you copy of a letter addressed by Justice R. Goldstone to the Chief of Staff in New York, further to a meeting held with the Secretary-General last Friday in Geneva. A tentative itinerary is mentioned in the letter and I would like to discuss the agenda with you or a liaison officer appointed by you. Respectfully yours,

September 14, 1994

Dear Mr. de Souza:

This is to inform you that the U.S. Mission's Africa Advisor, Ms. Laurie Lerner Shestack, will be traveling to several countries within Africa where there are UN peacekeeping operations. We would appreciate your assistance in setting up in-country briefings, transportation, and visits to out-stations, as appropriate. Our embassies will be coordinating Ms. Shestack's schedule in-country. You have already received a copy of her preliminary itinerary. We will provide you with her final itinerary as soon as all arrangements are finalized.

Ms. Shestack will be in Burundi 3-4 October, where she would appreciate a chance to meet SRSG Ould Abdallah. She hopes to be in Rwanda 5-6 October, and would appreciate any assistance UNAMIR could provide. She will be in Lusaka 7-9 October, where she hopes to observe the peace talks between the Angolan parties. Lastly, she will be in Mozambique 10-13 October, and would appreciate any assistance ONUMOZ could provide.

Thank you for your assistance and cooperation.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: VISIT OF STAFF COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

1. Mr. Mohammed Oummih, President of the United Nations Staff Council, accompanied by another Staff Council representative, proposes to make a brief visit to United Nations Peace-keeping Operations with a view to addressing the concerns of civilian staff serving in the field. In view of the difficult conditions faced by the staff and the challenges they are facing daily in your operations, I believe it would be appropriate for you to welcome the Staff Council representatives and facilitate their travel. Mr. Oummih proposes to visit Mogadishu on August 30 and 31, Kigali on September 1 and Zagreb/Sarajeevo from September 2 to 5. We will convey a more detailed itinerary in due course.

2. We suggest that the Staff Council representatives be provided suitable briefings and taken to field locations where they can meet directly with civilian staff.

Where possible, (e.g. in Zagreb and Mogadishu), Mr. Oummih should be given an opportunity to address a general meeting of civilian staff. He has also requested your co-operation in allowing him to organize the selection of staff representatives in your missions.

3. Thank you for your understanding and co-operation.

NOTE AU DOSSIER

objet : Assistance humanitaire gabonaise au Rwanda

Après deux reports successifs (vendredi 9 et jeudi 15 septembre 1994) de la mission gabonaise chargée de remettre à la MINUAR l'aide du gouvernement et du peuple gabonais en faveur du peuple frère rwandais éprouvé, cette mission vient d'être reportée pour la troisième fois à une date non encore précisée et sans aucune explication.

En effet, le départ de la mission prévu pour ce samedi 17 septembre à 05 heures du matin a été annulé à 9H30, alors que toute la délégation dont la liste est ci-jointe attendait d'embarquer d'un moment à l'autre à la base militaire de Libreville depuis 4H30 du matin. Aux environs de 6 heures, sur instruction du chef de la délégation le Ministre Lazarre Digombe, l'Ambassadeur Adande a tenté sans succès d'entrer en contact téléphonique avec le Ministre de la Défense pour avoir des précisions sur la situation. C'est ainsi qu'il s'est rendu au domicile du Ministre où après 45 minutes d'attente, il a été informé que le Ministre ne pouvait être dérangé.

Suite à cette situation gênante et confuse, le chef de la délégation a pris la décision de retourner à son domicile pour essayer d'entrer en contact avec le chef de l'Etat par le biais de son Directeur de Cabinet. Pendant plus de deux heures, le reste de la délégation attendait la suite à la base militaire. Les tentatives menées pour prévenir à temps la MINUAR du retard accusé n'ont pu aboutir en raison de l'impossibilité d'appeler l'étranger à partir de cette base.

Ce n'est qu'à 9H30 que le chef de la délégation est venu annoncer le report de la mission décidé par le Directeur de Cabinet du chef de l'Etat après concertation avec le Ministre de la Défense. Aucune autre information n'a été donnée sauf qu'une rencontre était prévue cette après midi entre le Chef de l'Etat et le chef de la délégation accompagné de l'Ambassadeur Adande.

Si les deux premiers reports semblent se justifier par des raisons techniques, le troisième report suscite des interrogations de ma part. En effet, le première mission a été reportée suite à la réticence des compagnies d'assurance à assurer l'avion présidentiel qui devait transporter la délégation à Kigali, considéré comme zone en guerre. La réception tardive de l'autorisation de survoler le territoire zaïrois en avion militaire retenu pour la deuxième mission, a été à la base du deuxième report.

Après ces deux expériences, j'ai tenu, pour la troisième mission, à obtenir du gouvernement les assurances et la garantie que toutes les conditions étaient réunies avant d'en informer la MINUAR. Jusqu'à l'annonce inattendue du report de la mission de ce jour, rien ne présageait une telle issue.

Cependant, il faut signaler que lors des préparatifs de l'opération d'assistance humanitaire gabonaise au Rwanda, quelques observations avaient été émises par certains membres de la société civile notamment les ONG sur l'acheminement de l'aide à Kigali. A ce sujet, le comité interministériel pour l'aide au Rwanda a fait remarquer que la décision de remettre l'aide directement à la MINUAR à Kigali avait été prise par le Conseil des Ministres.

Par ailleurs, la question de la reconnaissance ou non du gouvernement en place à Kigali a été également posée. Les autorités ont alors précisé que le Gabon reconnaissait les Etats et non les gouvernements.

Edith GASANA,
Le 17/9/1994.
