American Jewish Cttee

28 January 2008

Dear Mr. Rosen,

I write to thank you for your letter of 14 January 2008 and to wish you and your family all the very best for a happy, healthy and peaceful year ahead.

Thank you also for the wonderful book which you so generously sent me. It will be a valuable addition to my library and I will read it with great interest.

I look forward to continuing our personal cooperation and friendship and to building on the very good relations that exist between the United Nations and the American Jewish Congress-Council for World Jewry.

Yours sincerely,

Asha-Rose Migiro

14 January 2008,

Her Excellency Ms. Asha-Rose Migiro
Deputy Secretary General
United Nations
Secretariat Building
New York

Excellency,

I have the honor to convey to you and your family my best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. May 2008 brings you success in your noble mission and strengthens the excellent relations between the United Nations and my organization.

I have the pleasure to offer you this book about your fascinating continent as a token of my friendship. I must confess that I am very pleased with what I learn about Africa, a continent of an immensely rich cultural, human and natural diversity.

I hope to undertake another visit to Africa soon which might include a stop in Tanzania. My office will be in touch with you when the details are finalized as I would like to benefit from your feedback prior to the trip.

In the meantime, please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Jack Rosen
Chairman
