Statement of expenditures from UNIC, Tokyo

[Handwritten notes in red: Sam HPS, w/11/20, Sam H, w/11/20]

... 1. Reference: the attached memo prepared by UNIC, Tokyo.

2. As instructed by the Chief Admin. Officer, all the expenditures in connexion with the session should as much as possible be billed to and paid first by the Center and subsequently be IOV'd to UNCURK, the following explanations should be helpful, especially in the absence of a UNIC Director and Mr. Sakakibara's first experience with the session held outside Tokyo.

- (a) VIP room charge at the Tokyo Airport on 4 Nov (¥8,800)
When I arrived in Tokyo on 2 November, I asked Mr. Magistretti, the Acting Director of UNIC, and Mr. Sakakibara to help us in getting a VIP room at the airport in the afternoon of 4 November. I was told by UNIC on 3 November that the VIP room could be made available to us, but, according to the UN Section of the Japanese Foreign Ministry, we have to pay for it, the first time I have heard of this.
- (b) Toll charges paid by UNIC for taking me to Kawana (¥1,840)
Upon my arrival at the Center, it had been arranged that Messrs. Verkade and Samanant be accommodated in a hotel which is about an hour drive from the Kawana Hotel. No accommodation had been made for Mr. Osman. In view of these developments and besides other pertinent problems, the Acting Director of UNIC advised that I should travel to Kawana in the Center's car together with his administrative officer, Mr. Sakakibara. Since the UNIC's driver was busy that evening, Mr. Sakakibara volunteered to drive me out so that he himself could make firm arrangements on the spot. At the same time, according to the Acting Director, the expenses would be much less than I would have paid in travelling on my own.
- (c) Train tickets for Ambassador Bas Backer
The Ambassador made a last-minute decision to travel by train to Kawana. I presumed the Center arranged the travel for him. I met him at Itoh Station and took him in a hired car to the Kawana Hotel. On his return trip to Tokyo by train with Mr. Verkade, I bought two tickets for them.
- (d) Overtime work charges for Mr. Sakakibara (¥19,530)
This is new to me. I hope the Chief Admin. Officer can settle it with UNIC.

Upon my return to Seoul, I wish to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff and, in particular, Mr. H. Sakakibara, for the support and assistance rendered to UNCURK and its members in connexion with the recent session held in Kawana.

I know that, despite the pressure of your work, you saw to it that all arrangements had been made in order to make our session as successful as possible. It was indeed extremely kind of you to extend all the necessary help which, as usual, has always been part of the co-operation of the U.N. Information Center.

Dear Zouheir,

This is merely to confirm that we have cancelled the subscription for the Korean Daily News as from July 1970, as requested in your letter of 16 December.

I hope that all the arrangements for the forthcoming UNCURK session in Tokyo are in hand.

As cabled, we have had another word with Mr. Amau, Head of the Political Division, UN Bureau at Foreign Office about obtaining a discount for the conference room at the Hilton. Regretfully this has proved of no avail. However as you know, UNCURK will not have to pay the usual 10 per cent tax.

A double bed room has been booked for you at the Hilton beginning Monday, 19 January.

We have managed to get a room for Samanant at the International House as from 19 January. Cost is only ¥1,760 (approx. $5).

Looking forward to seeing you and your wife and with kindest regards to both of you,

Yours sincerely,

Bill
