

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

16 March 2012

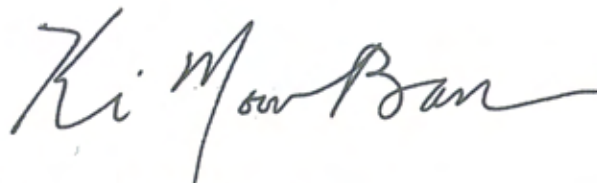

Excellency,

I have heard the news of your wife's hospitalization and write to express my sincere wishes for her speedy recovery.

I imagine that you are, understandably, extremely preoccupied with her health. As I look forward to our upcoming meetings in Jakarta and Sentul, I trust that preparations are well in hand and that you will not go to any special trouble on my account, especially at this sensitive time for you and your family.

I anticipate that we will have very productive talks next week. Meanwhile, I offer my sincere hopes that your wife gets better quickly and that you and your family can soon celebrate her full return to wellness.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
