Upcoming travels of the Deputy Secretary-General

This is to advise you that from 10 to 15 June, the Deputy Secretary-General is likely to travel to Cape Town, South Africa, to attend the World Economic Forum on Africa. She may stop by in Rome, Italy, on her return on 15 July to receive the Marisa Bellisario Award from the Bellisario Foundation.

From 30 June to 3 July 2007, the Deputy Secretary-General is likely to travel to Accra, Ghana, to attend the African Union Summit, followed by a visit to Nairobi, Kenya, from 4 to 6 July, to address the opening of the International Women's Summit on Women's Leadership on HIV and AIDS.

I would be grateful to receive DSS's security assessment for each location as soon as possible.

Thank you,

Paolo Galli
