REPUBLICA DE HONDURAS

Tegucigalpa, D.C., 6 de marzo de 1947.

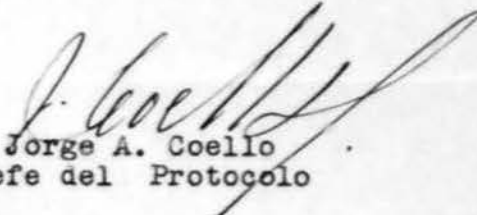

Muy estimado Señor Urquhart:

Tuve el gusto de recibir la atenta carta de usted, fechada el 12 de febrero próximo pasado, junto a la cual se sirvió enviarme, por deseo del Excelentísimo Señor Trygve Lie, una fotografía de él, expresando en su nombre su alto aprecio por la hospitalidad que le extendiera mi Gobierno durante su corta permanencia en esta ciudad, agregando que tanto el Excelentísimo Señor Secretario General como sus distinguidos acompañantes gozaron mucho en mi patria.

Por su digno medio expreso al Excelentísimo Señor Lie mi sincero agradecimiento por el envío de su fotografía y por los amables conceptos sobre mi país y su gobierno, reiterando nuestros deseos porque Su Excelencia el Señor Lie y sus honorables acompañantes nos honren en el futuro con una nueva visita que traerá indudablemente un mejor conocimiento sobre Honduras y su gente, donde se aprecia altamente el grandioso trabajo de la Organización de las Naciones Unidas y muy especialmente el del Excelentísimo Señor Secretario General.

Pláceme aprovechar la oportunidad para presentar a usted, y por su conducto, a los Honorables Señores Doctor Benjamín Cohen, Señor William Stoneman y Señorita Daphne Chamberlain los sentimientos de mi consideración y aprecio más distinguidos.

Cordialmente,

My dear Mr. Secretary-General:

I have received your letter of February 3, 1947, in which you express your appreciation for the courtesies and assistance that were extended to you and members of your party by United States representatives during your recent trip to Central America and the Carribean area.

The Department is extremely gratified to learn that its diplomatic representatives rendered to you such valuable and cordial service, and wishes to thank you for your kind expression of their helpfulness.

It is with pleasure, that I forward copies of your letter to the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Interior for the information of their representatives in the Panama Canal Zone and in Puerto Rico.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Morales,

Thank you very much indeed for forwarding the photographs taken on Mr. Lie's visit to Costa Rica to Mr. Cohen. I am acknowledging them on his behalf as he is away in South America.

We all very much enjoyed our visit to San José, and especially the delightful morning which we spent with you at the Country Club. Our only regret is that our visit was so short, but we all hope to come back some time soon. I must admit that your offer of jobs in Costa Rica was very tempting.

I am very much looking forward to seeing you again soon and trust you will ring me up when you are next in New York.

Again with many thanks for everything you did for us on our visit,

Yours very sincerely,

B.E. Urquhart

Lake Success.-

Muy estimado Sr. Cohen:

Previos mis más afectuosos saludos para Ud. y miembros integrantes de la Comisión Especial que estuvo en este país, me es grato adjuntar, -como se lo prometí, - los recortes de periódicos de Costa Rica en donde se detallan las crónicas que se publicaron con motivo de la estadía del Honorable Sr. Lie.- Asimismo me permito acompañarle las fotografías tomadas con ese motivo.-

Espero que el resto de la travesía haya sido coronada con todo éxito, y aprovecho la oportunidad para informarle que causó en los elementos del Gobierno y en la opinión pública en general, muy buena impresión que nada menos que el Secretario General de la Organización más importante del mundo viniera en persona a Costa Rica.-

Ya sabe Dr. Cohen que en esta su segunda patria se le estima y aprecia y esperamos tenerlo otra vez entre nosotros.-

Aprovecho la oportunidad para reiterar a Ud. a los demás miembros de Comisión en especial al Sr. Lie, las muestras de mi más distinguida consideración y aprecio,
