Dear Secretary-General,

I am writing to extend a formal invitation to you to pay a visit to our Beijing headquarters at your convenience.

Mr. Secretary-General, this year marks the twenties anniversary of our company. I appreciate and recollect with great enjoyment the memory that you personally received me at the UN headquarters in NY two months ago. Phoenix TV and I myself cherish very much the blessing and encouragement of Secretary-General for our future development.

As a major Chinese speaking media broadcaster with a large Chinese audience, we would be honored if Secretary-General would pay a visit to our brand new, state of art headquarter in BJ and do a live interview to further talk about China's increasingly important role and participation in UN affairs should you have any plan to visit China in the near future.

We are looking forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Liu Changle, JP
