7 March 2008

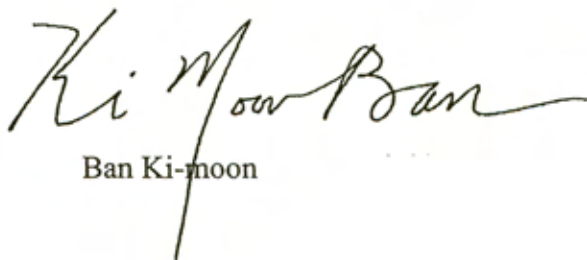

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

It was with deep regret that I learned that Major Famara Jammeh, international arms monitor deployed to the United Nations Mission in Nepal (UNMIN), died on 3 March 2008 while on assignment.

I should be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my appreciation for Major Jammeh's contributions to our work for peace in Nepal.

I would also like to express to you once again my gratitude for the valuable support that the Government of the Gambia continues to provide to this important special political mission.

Please accept, Mr. Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.
