EXECUTIVE OFFICE
OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Your Excellency,

As the largest world federation of over 1100 lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and intersex (LGBTI) organisations fighting for the rights of LGBTI people, ILGA members are very much aware of the changes Your mandate has brought to the perception of the UN in the eyes of hundreds of millions of lesbians, gays, bisexuals, trans and intersex people all over the world. Thanks to Your voice, the UN are now regarded by all of them as an institution calling for a genuine and heartfelt embracement of a truly universal and intellectually honest conception of human rights, beyond boundaries of culture, language, religion or other differences. The impact of Your voice, that we were honoured to hear in a dedicated video message from You to our last World Conference in Stockholm in December 2012, clearly condemning discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity and reminding everyone that the UDHR is not called "the partial or the sometimes Declaration of Human Rights" cannot be overestimated: it has moved many of us to tears, proving to those of us who find themselves fighting against prejudice in the most hostile circumstances that our fight is not in vain, that there truly is reason for hope in a better world.

For these reasons, Your Excellency, the Board of ILGA has decided to confer You the 2014 ILGA Award at the next ILGA World Conference in Mexico City on Wednesday 29 October. We would be honoured to welcome You in Mexico on that occasion and we really hope that You will consider our invitation and look forward to hearing from Your Office soon. If You would like more information about ILGA or hesitate to contact ILGA's Executive Director, Renato Sabbadin

Yours sincerely
