

PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF ISRAEL
TO THE UNITED NATIONS

הנציג הקבוע
של ישראל לאומות המאוחדות

11 March 2015

Excellency,

(Ref. Corlog 15-02093; 15-02094)

I am writing to extend my personal invitation to a landmark event hosted by the Permanent Missions of Israel, Canada and the United States, along with UNESCO at United Nations Headquarters next week.

On 16 March 2015, we will unveil an exhibition showcasing the 3,500-year relationship between the Jewish people and the Holy Land. This story of this relationship will be shown through 25 illustrated panels that detail the history of the Jewish People in the Middle East from the time of the biblical patriarch Abraham to the present-day State of Israel.

The exhibition, curated by leading international historian and Hebrew University Professor Robert Wistrich, was created by the Simon Wiesenthal Center together with UNESCO. It was first presented in UNESCO headquarter in Paris in June of 2014.

I would be honored to have you attend the event which will take place at 6:30 p.m. in the Delegates Lobby.

Yours truly,

Ron Prosor
Ambassador
Permanent Representative

RECEIVED

MAR 11 2015

15-02095

EOSS/CENTRAL

Ms. Susana Malcorra
Under-Secretary-General, Chef de Cabinet
United Nations
New York

FILED

JUL 28 2015

EOSS/CENTRAL

PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF ISRAEL
TO THE UNITED NATIONS

Central

הנציג הקבוע
של ישראל לאומות המאוחדות

11 March 2015

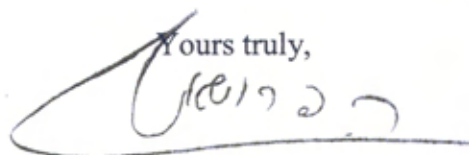

Excellency,

I am writing to extend my personal invitation to a landmark event hosted by the Permanent Missions of Israel, Canada and the United States, along with UNESCO at United Nations Headquarters next week.

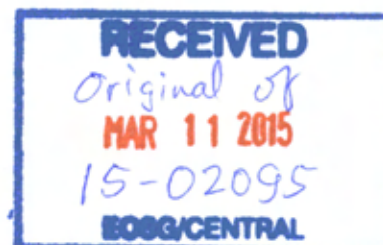

On 16 March 2015, we will unveil an exhibition showcasing the 3,500-year relationship between the Jewish people and the Holy Land. This story of this relationship will be shown through 25 illustrated panels that detail the history of the Jewish People in the Middle East from the time of the biblical patriarch Abraham to the present-day State of Israel.

The exhibition, curated by leading international historian and Hebrew University Professor Robert Wistrich, was created by the Simon Wiesenthal Center together with UNESCO. It was first presented in UNESCO headquarter in Paris in June of 2014.

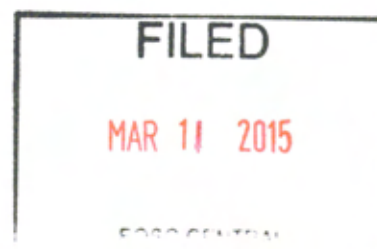

I would be honored to have you attend the event which will take place at 6:30 p.m. in the Delegates Lobby.

Yours truly,

Ron Prosor
Ambassador
Permanent Representative

Ms. Susana Malcorra
Under-Secretary-General, Chef de Cabinet
United Nations
New York

SCN/08/004