

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Moldova

6 October 2009

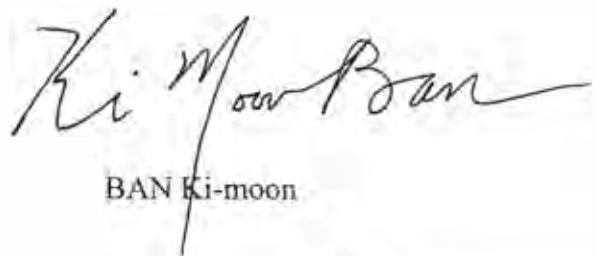

Excellency,

I extend to you my congratulations upon your appointment as Prime Minister of Moldova. I wish you every success in carrying out your important responsibilities.

I welcome the commitment of your Government to the rule of law and the pursuit of economic and social reforms, on your country's path towards further European integration. In this regard, I hope that conditions for a healthy and constructive political dialogue will prevail in Moldova allowing your Government to concentrate on addressing these challenges.

I look forward to working with you to address the complex global challenges that lie ahead, and count on the support of Moldova in implementing the principles and aims of the United Nations Charter.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
