Dear Secretary-General Ban,

It was a great pleasure to spend time with you during your recent visit to Chicago. You were gracious to spend time here at MacArthur and share your thoughts on the U.N.'s priorities. We learned much from the discussion and look forward to working with you to meet the Millennium Development Goals. Our work on MDG 5 is just beginning to ramp up in Nigeria and India, and I will be in touch as progress is made and we further scale-up.

Thank you again for your time.

All the best.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Secretary-General:

We look forward to your visit to the MacArthur Foundation on the afternoon of February 7th. It will be a good opportunity to hear about your priorities and to explore how MacArthur might be helpful.

I enclose a partial list of grants MacArthur has made to U.N. agencies and groups supporting the U.N.

If there is any further information you need, please have your staff contact David Spielfogel at dspielfo@macfound.org or 312-516-1613. He is in touch with your office to finalize a time for the afternoon.

All the best.

Sincerely,

Dear Madam,

The Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), a historic promise to end extreme poverty and hunger, promote human wellbeing and protect the environment, is one of the most aspirational development programs unanimously committed by World Leaders. The MDGs are at the heart of development policies worldwide and in essence the overarching theme of MDGs has become every country's goals.

MGRM realizes the urgent need for an absolute commitment at all levels towards achieving these goals in order to conserve our society for the future generations. We at MGRM recognize each country, state, district, city, society or community as different systems with locations, culture, necessities or requirements as variables and have developed a groundbreaking framework that provides moral, simple, transparent, accountable and responsive governance. The blend of this revolutionary governance framework with our proprietary e-governance solutions has the capability of addressing physical, psychological and social needs of governments and individuals, thereby accelerating developmental growth of all its stakeholders.

MGRM seeks to blend your vision for addressing diverse developmental challenges with its multi-completeness solutions to create a driving force of transformation. I take this opportunity to present to you MyDiary 2008, a humble offering from the MGRM Group of Companies with the hope that it will interest you.

May God Rehabilitate Mankind.
