PRESS RELEASE

UNAMIR NR 95-32

26 May 1995

GENERAL ASSEMBLY ELECTS SIX JUDGES OF INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNAL FOR RWANDA

The United Nations General Assembly elected on 24 and 25 May 1995 in secret balloting the judges who would serve in the trial chambers of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. Elected were:

- Navanethem Pillay of South Africa,
- Laity Kama of Senegal,
- T.H. Khan of Bangladesh,
- Lennart Aspegren of Sweden,
- Yakov A. Ostrovsky of the Russian Federation,
- William H. Sekule of Tanzania.

The Tribunal consists of the following:

- two trial chambers, each made up of three judges;
- a five-judge Appeals Chamber, appointed by the President of the Tribunal;
- a Prosecutor, who will be responsible for investigating and prosecuting violations of international humanitarian law; and
- a Registry which will be responsible for administering and servicing the Tribunal.

The six judges are elected for terms of four years on a full-time basis. Their team will be reinforced by the members of the Appeals Chamber for former Yugoslavia, who will also serve as members of the Appeals Chamber for Rwanda.

For more information, please contact the Office of the Spokesman in Kigali: phone: 84266 ext.: # 11075 or 11124 or 11066.
