

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Condolences / Nat Dis

26 January 2010

Dear Mr. Cameron,

I sincerely appreciate your expression of condolences at the tragic loss of life among United Nations personnel serving in Haiti as a result of the devastating earthquake which struck on 12 January 2010. Your kind words are a source of great comfort during this difficult period.

As the United Nations family mourns its losses, we also remain committed to our mission in Haiti and to the recovery and reconstruction of the country. I am sure that the dearest wish of our fallen colleagues would be that we carry forward the work they performed so valiantly.

Thank you again for your solidarity and support.

I am writing to express my deep sympathy to you and your colleagues at the United Nations at the casualties which you have suffered, alongside the people of Haiti, in the terrible earthquake.

This is a terrible blow both for the people of Haiti and for the United Nations mission there which was helping to rebuild that troubled country. It is especially poignant that the UN is helping with the rescue effort at a time when so many of your own personnel are also missing.

Please pass on my condolences to your staff.
