Excellency,

Dear Ambassador Nambiar,

Please refer to your letter of March 12, 2007 informing that the Secretary-General would not be able to participate in the Vesak day function on 29 May 2007, but that he would send a message. In this regard, the Mission was in contact with the Speechwriting Unit to find out who would be delivering the message on behalf of the Secretary-General. The Speechwriting Unit advised that the information should be obtained from Your Excellency's Office.

I would be grateful to know who would be representing the Secretary-General on Vesak Day. It is our sincere hope that the United Nations would be represented at an appropriate level at a function which is of great significance to Buddhists all over the world.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Kaori,

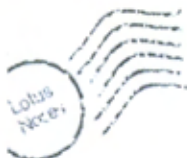

As mentioned earlier, Mr. Akasaka will be on mission at that time. Mr. Akasaka has asked Mr. Sommereyns, Director of DPI's Outreach Division, to read the message of the Secretary-General.

Could your office kindly make the text of the message available to Mr. Sommereyns's office, as well as supply the name of the event focal point at the Bhutan Mission so that Mr. Sommereyns's office could obtain a scenario?

Many thanks and best regards,
Dana

Subject Vesak Day on 29 May at the DH Library

Dear Dana ,

Hello. I hope all is well.

Will anyone from DPI be attending the Vesak Day event on 29 May?
The USG? A Director?

We have sent a message by the SG for this occasion, and now the Mission of Bhutan wants to know if someone will be there to read it.

Thanks.
