

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

22 October 2014

Dear Secretary General Annan,

It was delightful to see you and Mrs. Annan at the home of Mr. Robert Pirie on Monday night.

Congratulations again on the recent publication of a book containing a selection of your speeches. I thought you might wish to have a copy of my own collection, covering the first six years of my tenure. Please accept the attached with my best wishes.

I look forward to seeing you again soon.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

With my deep admiration,

Ban Ki-moon
