To Mr. Ban Ki Moon
Secretary General
United Nations headquarters
New York

Dear His Excellency Ban, Greetings from your admirer - I wish to bring to your attention a serious breach of trust of one of your colleagues –
S. Chidambaranathan, advisor to the United Nations University (UNU) in New York.

In his capacity as vice president of New York Tamil Association, he is openly criticizing the action of UN in Sri Lanka and failure to save millions of Tamils from mass killings. He supports all the actions of militants and banned organizations.

He castigates you and your colleague Mr. Vijay Nambiar and abuses both of you in public meetings. Such a behavior by a senior UN official raises serious questions of what is UN doing to save its image in public when one of its senior officers himself abuses the organization and its policies.

If this is not stopped, the image of the UN will go in for a toss and people will accept his speech as “official”

This is for your information and action

Sincerely

Concerned citizens of New York who have faith in the UN
