24th July, 1946.

Dear Colonel Ledingham,

Reference your letter dated 23rd July concerning cable A(P-4)5174 from EXPCR - BAOR.

In the event of JAUCH and FRAU being acquitted, we should be glad if steps could be taken, either by continued detention or otherwise, to ensure that these persons could be surrendered to Belgium for trial there. FRAU, for instance, has been charged by Belgium for crimes committed at the concentration camp of Oranienburg-Sachsenhausen as well as at Neuengamme.

Yours sincerely,

30th July, 1946.

Our Ref. Z-27/46.

Dr. J. Litavský,
Legal Officer,
United Nations War Crimes Commission,
Lonsdowne House,
Berkeley Square, W.1.

Dear Dr. Litavský,

In reply to the telegram from BACR, reference A(P34)/474, forwarded to me with your letter of the 3rd June, 1946, I have informed you verbally that I have enquired of our authorities whether they have any objections to the release of Max Paul JAIN and Gerhard SPANJAR.

As I have not yet received an answer from Prague, I have to ask you to keep these persons in custody until further notice.

The other persons mentioned in the telegram have not been charged by the Czechoslovak Government.

Further to your letter of the 25th June, 1946, I am able to inform you that there are no objections to the release of Gustav ROSOLI, Gertrud SCHULZ and Maria SZAKOLCSA. You informed me a few days ago personally that in the trial against the staff of the Concentration Camp Neuengamme-Tiefstack, Eva Maria BROWERSKI and Richard HOFMEISTER were also acquitted. There are no objections either on the part of the Czechoslovak Government to their release.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. H. J. J. J. J.

Dear Dr. Litawski,

In your letter of 17th December 1946, you asked me to ascertain from my Government whether they would have any objection to the release of seven members of the LAIDE-SE-ER Labour Camp, in the event of their being acquitted in the coming British trial.

I have now been informed that my Government would not, in the circumstances, have any objection to their release, unless some other charges of a grave nature come to light in the meantime.

Yours sincerely,

Nide Maer
