8 October 2012

Excellency,

Thank you for the letter of 27 September 2012 inviting the Deputy Secretary-General to address a panel event entitled "Human Rights at International Borders", which will take place on 25 October 2012 in New York.

The Deputy Secretary-General is honoured by your invitation to this important event, however, regretfully he must decline due to prior travel commitments on the proposed dates.

The Deputy Secretary-General appreciates your understanding and sends his best wishes for a successful event.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

New York, 27 of September 2012.

Excellency,

I have the honor to refer to the upcoming panel event co-organized by the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the Permanent Mission of Mexico to the United Nations, in the context of the work of the Third Committee during the 67th General Assembly of the United Nations.

In this regard, I would like to kindly invite you to address the panel event entitled "Human Rights at International Borders", on the 25th of October in New York from 1.15 to 2.45pm, as we consider this to be an opportunity to further the profile of this issue, in particularly among Member States and civil society organizations.

I would be grateful if you could accept this invitation and join us during this event, as your presence will most certainly enrich the discussion.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew the assurances of my highest consideration.
