Dear Alex,

I would like to inform you the DSG had also received an invitation to this event which he will accept. And of course he will be happy to represent the SG at this occasion.

FYI - I will inform the Indian Mission of DSG's acceptance - I hope that is fine with you.

Best regards,
Tasa

Excellency,

The UN General Assembly Resolution adopted its resolution 61/271 in June 2007 to commemorate October 2 as the International Day of Non-Violence. This day has since been commemorated every year at the United Nations with a function organised by the Mission of India.

This year the event will be on October 2, 2014. We are organising a commemorative event at 1100a.m at the Trusteeship Council (CB). It would be an honour if you could attend the event as Chief Guest and deliver the Key Note Address.

I hope that the date and time suits your convenience. A line in confirmation of your presence from your office will be much appreciated.

As in the past, I would also be inviting the President of the General Assembly and the Permanent Representative of South Africa to join us at the event and address the gathering.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
