Dear Jan.

It was a pleasure to meet you last month. Our discussion reinforced the extent to which we share the Secretary-General's agenda for change that will better enable the UN to deliver security and development for its member states. I look forward to working with you to support the UN's leadership in realising that vision.

I am planning to return to New York during the UK Presidency in June, when I would welcome an opportunity to explore these issues further.

I regret that Parliament will be in recess when you are planning to visit Spain at Easter so I would not be in London should you be passing through. However, I am delighted to hear you are planning a visit to the UK later this year. I would be keen to see you in London if our offices are able to identify a mutually convenient date.

Best wishes

Sayeeda.
