Women's Federation for World Peace INTERNATIONAL

October 19, 2009

Asha-Rose Migiro
Deputy Secretary-General
Room S-3862A
United Nations
New York, NY 10017 212-963-8845

Dear Ms. Asha-Rose Migiro,

Please find enclosed WFWPI's newsletter-Fall 2009 issue and a complimentary copy of WFWPI's Biennial Report of Overseas Volunteer Activities and International Service Projects 2007-2008 for your perusal.

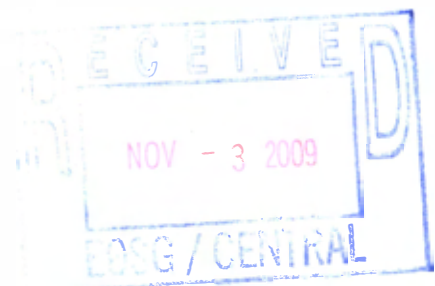

Women's Federation for World Peace International (WFWPI) adheres to the principle that women, working together, taking initiative and empowering one another across traditional lines of race, culture and religion to create healthy families, are resolving the complex problems of our societies and world. WFWPI's programs are focused on empowerment of women worldwide; reinforcement of family values; sound upbringing of children, and building partnerships for peace through cooperation of women. In order to achieve these aims, we have been promoting and developing two major activities worldwide which are: poverty eradication projects targeting the empowerment of women and children; and the peace-building "Bridge of Peace" sisterhood project.

You will find detailed information about our projects for poverty eradication in the enclosed biennial report of service projects. I will be most grateful if I could receive your comments or suggestions to help us advance our work and further create more improved and productive activities.

Sincerely yours,

Motoko Sugiyama
