OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Dear Secretary General Ban Ki-moon,

✓ After more than three exciting and memorable years in New York as Chinese Consul General, I am going to leave my position next month. I want to bid farewell to you and let you know what a distinct pleasure it has been to know and interact with you during my tenure here.

I haven't had the honor to work with you on a regular basis, but through our interactions I have been deeply impressed with your commitment to the work of the United Nations and your dedication to public service. As one of the most eminent and accomplished statesmen of our time, you have provided outstanding service to the Korean people when you were Foreign Minister of the Republic of Korea and to the world as UN Secretary General. You have been a constant source of inspiration to me.

May you enjoy greater success in your future endeavors. Min and I also send our best regards to your wife and wish both of you happiness and health.

Sincerely,

Ambassador Sun Guoxiang
Consul General of the People's Republic of China in New York
