27 February 2007

Dear Deputy Secretary-General,

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to meet you so early in your tenure.

I am looking forward to our meeting as an opportunity to discuss ways in which we at Amnesty International believe you can promote human rights and to inform you of our work in the areas you have spoken about. In particular I would like to discuss mainstreaming of human rights in UN policies and day-to-day decision making, UN initiatives on the abolition of the death penalty, and your plans to strengthen the rule of law, as Chair of the Secretariat Unit to support the proposed Rule of Law Coordination and Resource Group, outlined in the Secretary-General's report (S/2006/980).

My colleagues Widney Brown, Senior Director for International Law, Policy and Campaigns, and Yvonne Terlingen, who heads Amnesty International's UN Office in New York, will accompany me during the meeting.

Yours sincerely

Irene Khan
Secretary General
