Your Excellency, dear friend,

I would like to extend my warmest congratulations to you on the occasion of the United Nations Day and the seventieth anniversary of the United Nations. This occasion represents an opportunity to reflect on our collective work, to honor the achievements of the United Nations in the fields of peace and security, sustainable development and human rights, and also to continue strengthening our joint resolve to do more; so as to further build on the organizational insight to enable the United Nations to progress on improving the lives of individuals across the world.

It is within our capacity to deliver upon these aspirations but more importantly it is our duty to do so.

Today, this is still our task and common goal. In the pursuit of this endeavor, I assure you of Jordan's stalwart support and cooperation.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration and my warmest wishes.
