12 April 2007

Excellency,

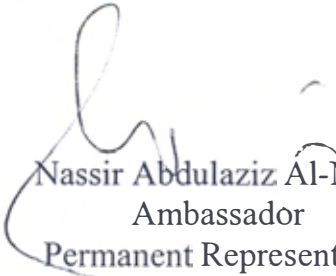

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 6 April 2007 which contained your very kind sentiment of gratitude towards the Government of the State of Qatar. Allow me to assure you that the State of Qatar is happy to extend this courtesy to the Secretary General.

It is my pleasure to inform you that the State of Qatar will provide a private Qatari aircraft to transport the Secretary General from Geneva to Doha to attend the Seventh Doha Forum on Democracy, Development and Free Trade and then to travel to Damascus and Frankfurt.

We are fully cognizant of the energetic and dynamic efforts expended by the Secretary General in immersing himself in the complexities of the problems in this volatile region. We fully recognize and appreciate the success of the first visit of the Secretary General to the Middle East and are confident that his second visit will be just as successful.

I would like to reiterate the warm-hearted sentiments of the Government of the State of Qatar, as well as my personal good wishes, towards the Secretary General. I assure you that the Secretary General can count on the strong support of the State of Qatar, as well as myself, in common pursuit of advancing the noble ideals, vision and objectives of the United Nations Charter.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
