Dear Mr. Eldar,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter dated 15 February 2015, inviting him to be the keynote speaker at the 2nd Israel Conference on Peace, to be held in Tel Aviv on 21 July 2015.

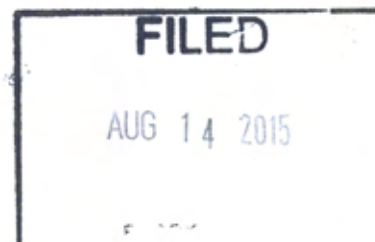

The Secretary-General appreciates your kind invitation. Unfortunately, I regret to inform you that due to his travel schedule, the Secretary-General is unable to attend the Conference. Nevertheless, allow me to take this opportunity to convey his best wishes for a successful event.

I would be grateful if you could convey this response to Mr. Aluf Benn, Editor-in-Chief of Haaretz and Mr. Rami Guez, Chief Executive Officer of Haaretz Group, who co-signed the invitation.

Yours sincerely,

Susana Malcorra
Chef de Cabinet

INVITATION FOR THE SECRETARY-GENERAL TO ATTEND THE ISRAEL
CONFERENCE ON PEACE

Regret
- Travel

1. The Secretary-General has been invited to deliver the key note address at the 2nd annual Israel Conference on Peace. This is the second of such conferences which is intended to focus on Arab-Israeli peace. The conference will take place on 21 July 2015 at the David InterContinental Hotel in Tel Aviv. Please find the invitation letter attached.
2. Special Coordinator Robert Serry recommends that the Secretary-General attend this conference if his schedule permits. We would recommend to reconsider this following the elections in Israel.

ISRAEL CONFERENCE ON PEACE

February 15, 2015

His Excellency, Mr. Ban Ki-moon,

UN Secretary General

We are pleased to invite you to participate as a keynote speaker at The 2nd Israel Conference on Peace.

Regardless of the result of the March national election, reaching peace must be on top of the agenda of any Israeli government and the Israeli public at large. In this context, Haaretz has taken upon itself to hold the 2nd Conference, to provide a platform for discussing the different dimensions of Arab-Israeli peace. The conferences give voice to different opinions on the long-lasting conflict and its resolution.

The first ICP took place on July 8th, 2014 and attracted great public and media attention. More than 2,200 people from Israel, the region and overseas attended the event, including political leaders, decision makers, outstanding experts, important thinkers and writers and ordinary citizens. Then-President Shimon Peres, Cabinet Ministers, MKs, diplomats and authors were among the eminent public figures who participated in the conference. A Haaretz interview with Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas was presented at the conference.

Haaretz will contribute its extensive experience in organizing conferences, promote the event and its content in its print and digital editions in Hebrew and English, as well as the general media, and produce special supplements on the occasion of the event in Hebrew, Arabic and English, as we did last year. U.S. President Barack Obama, Saudi Prince Turki Al-Faisal and UNSG Ban Ki-moon were among the contributing writers to this first-ever peace magazine and special web supplement.

The conference will take place on July 21st, 2015 at the David InterContinental Hotel in Tel Aviv. We have no doubt that your participation as a keynote speaker will constitute a significant contribution to the quality of the discussion.

We are at your disposal to answer any questions about the conference and your part in it, to: peace-conference2015@haaretz.co.il
