

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

3 November 2010

Dear Mr. Gurria,

I sent a letter to the G20 leaders last week ahead of the upcoming summit in Seoul that summarizes the main messages of the United Nations. The letter reflects on our consultations with the United Nations Member States and urges the G20 leaders to maintain their efforts for recovery. Otherwise, it will be the poor and the vulnerable who will pay an unacceptable price. The letter also addresses our development priorities and the way in which the United Nations can help address them.

With this note, I am forwarding to you a copy of the letter. I look forward to seeing you in Seoul.

Yours sincerely,
