Demetrius Makris.

5.18/AR. ✓

To:-

Welfare Officer,
Leros.

We are enclosing copy of a letter recently received from the American Friends Service Committee, regarding Demetrius Makris.

When I was in Leros Mr. George Makris again asked me about this matter and I assured him that we would do everything to assist him in his request.

From:-

Chief Welfare Officer.

You will note the National Immigration Society listed as another agency to contact in the U.S.A. regarding this and other welfare requests.

Re: Demetrius Makris

Dear Friend:

We desire to acknowledge your letter of May 20th sent from Washington, written on behalf of George Makris of Leros, Dodecanese Islands, who is trying to locate his father, Demetrius Makris, in this country.

We shall do everything possible to locate Demetrius Makris through various government agencies having to do with Merchant Marine personnel, and shall pass on to you any information which we secure.

We hope that we may be successful in tracing George Makris' father.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Berquist
