

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

18 August 2015

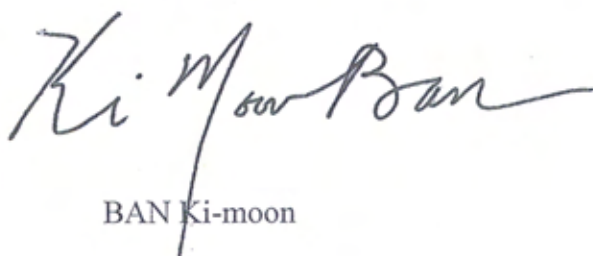

Excellency,

I would like to extend to you my warm congratulations upon your inauguration as President of the Republic of Poland.

The strong commitment of Poland to international peace and security, and sustainable development remains an important asset for our Organization. I am confident that under your leadership, Poland will continue to be an indispensable partner of the United Nations as we strive to tackle the complex global challenges that lie ahead.

I wish you every success in carrying out your responsibilities, and I look forward to working closely with you and your administration on matters of mutual interest to Poland and the United Nations.

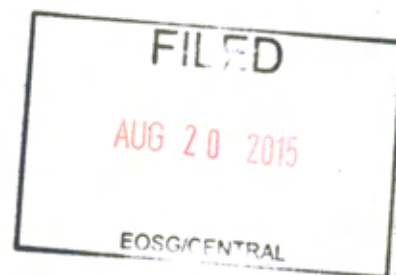

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

18 August 2015

Excellency,

As you end your distinguished tenure as President of the Republic of Poland, I would like to express my most sincere gratitude for your support in upholding the values and principles of the United Nations. It was an honour to work with you and your administration on key global issues of climate change, prohibition and elimination of chemical weapons and human rights. I would like to thank you in particular for playing an instrumental role in promoting a peaceful solution to the conflict in Ukraine.

Under your leadership, Poland has achieved outstanding economic growth and has become a leading voice in the region and on the international stage. Your country's development policy based on democracy, social justice, environmental protection and respect for human rights provides many lessons to other countries.

I wish you every success in your future endeavours and hope that your experience will remain available to the United Nations.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
