Dearest Mr. & Mrs. Annan,

I have enclosed the current issue of my son Thomas' middle school newspaper in which an article has been written about you and Mrs. Annan by Thomas. The article appears on page 8. I took the liberty of printing the cover page and the page in which your article appears in color and on hard stock paper in case you would like to put it into your portfolio. We hope you enjoy it. Possibly in an upcoming issue, Thomas would like to interview you about some of the wonderful things you are initiating with your programs to help children less fortunate in our world.

Please indicate if this could be possible and when is a good time to reach you to arrange a short interview. The Keller Teller is a student-oriented publication, exclusively written by the students of Helen Keller but appeal to both students and adults. With the help of parent volunteers the paper is published approximately three times a year. The next issue will be completed for distribution in June. We would love to feature a lengthier article on you in this issue if possible.

Sincerely,
