18 March 2015

Dear Deputy Secretary-General,

On the occasion of World Malaria Day 2015, commemorated annually the Roll Back Malaria (RBM) Partnership will host a lunch on Monday, 20 April, 2015 in New York at the North Delegates Dining Room, UNHQ from 1.15-2.45pm, with guests arriving for 1pm. Should your schedule allow, I would be honoured to have you attend and provide remarks at the lunch. Given the busy nature of your schedule, we would be delighted to welcome you at any portion of the event, even if only for a few minutes.

As you may know, the United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon announced in 2012 that malaria is a priority under his second mandate. As the global framework coordinating action against malaria, launched by UNICEF, WHO, UNDP, and the World Bank, the RBM Partnership is committed to advancing progress towards the global malaria goals. 2015 is of particular significance as it is the last World Malaria Day during the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), and this year's event will mark the transition to the post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

I look forward to the opportunity of welcoming you on this occasion. I remain at your disposal, and my colleague, Ms. Sophie Evekink (sevekink@rbmny.org; +1 212 218 4177), is at the disposal of your office as needed, should you require any additional information.

Please accept, Deputy Secretary-General, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely,

Hervé Verhoosel
