 Ban Ki-moon, Secretary General of the UN

Respected Mr Ban Ki-moon,

We have the honor and pleasure to invite you to attend the Presentation of the Balkan Charter of Peace, as a winner.

The Balkan Club of Peace is an International Peace Organization formed in Skopje in 2004, with the support of all International Organizations.

The Balkan Club of Peace includes the following countries: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Greece, Slovenia, Serbia, Montenegro, Moldova, Romania, Turkey and Macedonia.

The Balkan Club of Peace established its medal "Balkan Charter of Peace" on 10th of March 2010 in Kotor, Montenegro. Commission worked on the criteria and selected 312 winners of Balkan Charter of Peace. The winners are people of various professions, including Presidents, Prime Ministers, and people from sport, culture, business, media and International Organizations. There are two separate winners of the Balkan Charter of Peace: Ban Ki-moon, Secretary General, as well as UN.

Balkan Charter of Peace will be awarded on 5th of September 2011 in Sofia, Bulgaria. The ceremony will take place in the Congress Hall of the Hotel Dedeman, 131 Maria Luisa Blvd. Sofia, Bulgaria. In accordance with the protocol, some of the winners will receive the Charter in their countries by the end of the year. Those winners are: U.S. President Barack Obama, Vice President Joe Biden, Russia's President Dmitry Medvedev, President of Italy Giorgio Napolitano, President of Turkey Abdullah Gul, Prime Minister of Norway Jens Stoltenberg, Naoto Kan Prime Minister of Japan, Stephen Harper Prime Minister of Canada, Queen Elizabeth II, Queen Margarethe of Denmark, Juan Carlos King of Spain, Abdullah bin Aziz King of Saudi Arabia, King Albert II of Belgium, King Harald of Norway, King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand, King Abdullah II of Jordan, Grand-duc Henri de Luxembourg, Haji Hassanali Bolkiah Sultan of Brunei, Thorvald Stoltenberg and Geir Lundestad from the Nobel Committee.

We kindly ask all the winners to confirm their participation until 25th of August 2011. Balkan Charter of Peace is important and will be long-lasting in the Balkan region and also in the world. We are very proud that it received its name as well as its significance.

Your presence at this event would be a great encouragement to many to do in the same manner and with the same vigor, to accept your and our ideas, and in accordance to their abilities, to give their maximum contribution for a long lasting peace through the establishment of complete co-operation in the Balkans.

We thank you in advance and we are looking forward to welcome you in Sofia.
