Dear Secretary General Ban Ki-moon,

As we mark the 30th anniversary of the founding of China Daily on June 1, we would like to express our appreciation for your sustained and sincere support over the years.

Today, China Daily Media Group comprises 12 print publications, including editions in the United States, Europe, Asia, and soon plans to expand to Africa with a special edition. With the China Daily website at its core, China Daily's new media network consists of seven website clusters and three mobile platforms.

Taking advantage of its inherent strength as China's largest English-language media group, China Daily has built a platform of effective global communication by hosting an array of international events. It also has used its vast resources to collaborate closely with global mainstream media organizations as it gradually expands into global markets.

As China Daily strives to improve content and distribution networks, and marches toward becoming a world-class multiple-platform media group, we earnestly seek your advice and good wishes in pursuit of our mission. China Daily will print your message in our publications on June 1. Your feedback before May 15th would be highly appreciated.

Please contact Ms. Judy Xie at judyxie@chinadailyusa.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely yours,

Zhu Ling
