Excellency,

I have the honour to acknowledge your letter dated 25 July 2013 informing the Secretary-General of your intention to relinquish your post as Permanent Representative of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations as of that day.

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I should like to take this opportunity to reiterate my gratitude and sincere appreciation for the friendly cooperation which prevailed between the Permanent Mission of the People's Republic of China and the United Nations during your tenure of office in New York. This will, I am sure, be maintained under your successor.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

25 July 2013

Excellency,

I have the honor to inform you that I will leave my post as Permanent Representative of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations on 25 July, 2013.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation and deep gratitude for the assistance, cooperation and friendship that you have extended to me during my tenure of office in New York.

The Government of the People's Republic of China has decided to appoint Ambassador Liu Jieyi, a vice-ministerial level official at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, as my successor. His Curriculum Vitae is enclosed herewith. I am confident that you will extend, as you did to me, your goodwill and assistance to my successor and that your friendship with China will remain and grow from strength to strength in the years to come.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

LI BAODONG
