

Note to the Secretary-General

The Sixth Session of the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court

Monday, 3 December 2007

As you may recall, you have agreed to address the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court on Monday 3 December (10 a.m.) in Conference Room 4.

You will be seated in the centre between Mr. Bruno Stagno Ugarte, President of the Assembly of States Parties (on your left) and Mr. Philippe Kirsch, President of the International Criminal Court (on your right).

The order of speakers of the opening is as follows.

1. Statement by Mr. Ugarte
2. Statement by the Secretary-General
3. Speakers from the floor [Full list of speakers is attached.]
 - First Vice-President of Spain
 - Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan
 - Portugal (on behalf of the EU)
 - Permanent Representative of the UK

The President will call for a break at around 10:30 a.m. at which you may wish to depart.

Thank you.

Dear Kaori,

The ICC ASP Secretariat has expressed a preference for the SG to address the ASP on Monday, 3 Dec. at 10am. He would then be the first speaker on that day before the "general debate". I will send you the list of speakers as soon as I get it from the ASP Secretariat.

Many thanks for your help in this matter.

Best regards,
Markus

Hi Kaori,

Further to our telephone conversation the other day, I have learned that the SG has formally accepted the invitation to appear at the ICC ASP. Mr. Michel was very pleased about that. Thanks a lot for your help in all of this.

Please find attached a provisional agenda for the ASP in its current version for your information. They have nothing more at this point (so no list of speakers yet).

I would be grateful if you could keep me in the loop on the SG's Bali travel plans. Ideally, he could make a brief statement at the very beginning of the ASP (on Friday, 30 Nov. in the am), because I understand that he will certainly not be in NY on 3 Nov. when the "general debate" begins.

Many thanks,
Markus

Dear Mr. Nambiar,

On behalf of the President of the Assembly of States Parties, Mr. Bruno Stagno Ugarte, I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 27 September 2007, wherein you confirm the participation of H.E. Mr. Ban Ki-moon at the sixth session of the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute, to be held from 30 November to 14 December 2007 at United Nations Headquarters.

It is an honour to have the Secretary-General at the Assembly. His presence will constitute a reaffirmation of the excellent relationship between the United Nations and the International Criminal Court and the common commitment to combat impunity for the most serious crimes of concern to the international community.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.
