Excellency,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter dated 7 December 2016, inviting him to address the event celebrating the Jewish holiday of Hanukkah, which will be held on 18 December 2016 in New York.

The Secretary-General appreciates your kind invitation. Regrettably, he will be unable to attend, in view of prior commitments and pressing demands already scheduled on that date. Nevertheless, allow me to take this opportunity to convey his best wishes for a successful event.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Subject: Letter from Ambassador Danon - Invitation to celebrate Hannukah

Dear Elisabeth,

I hope this email finds you well.

Please find attached an invitation to H.E. Mr. Ban Ki-moon, to attend and address our annual Hannukah event on Sunday, December 18 at 7:30pm at the Jewish Museum.

If you could kindly inform us of H.E Mr. Ban Ki-moon's availability on the suggested date and time at your earliest convenience, it would be highly appreciated.

We would be honored to have him join us.

Many thanks,
Kim.

Excellency,

Hanukkah, the festival of lights, celebrates the triumph of justice over hate and intolerance, and represents good fortune and blessing. It is our annual tradition to hold a lighting ceremony to celebrate this special holiday.

It is my pleasure to invite you to join the Permanent Mission of Israel to the United Nations to our event celebrating the Jewish holiday of Hanukkah. The event will take place on Sunday, 18 December 2016 at 7:30 PM at the Jewish Museum in New York.

We would be honored and privileged if you could address our event and contribute to the festive celebration of this important holiday.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurance of my highest consideration.
