Good evening,

Thank you kindly for sending Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon's formal letter of regret via email and post. I have forwarded the scan along to Dr. Green.

We do hope that we can host the Secretary-General in the near future per his availability and that he will continue to keep us in mind as a host institution should he seek to visit Los Angeles. Please do let me know if there are any dates in his upcoming schedule that would allow for the Pacific Council to feature him in a marquee-level capacity.

Best regards,

Beril

Dear Dr. Green,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter dated 27 June 2014, inviting him to speak at the annual Members Weekend of the Pacific Council, to be held in Santa Monica on 17 and 18 October 2014, or on any convenient date throughout the year.

The Secretary-General appreciates your kind invitation. Regrettably, he will not be able to honour your invitation at this time. Nevertheless, allow me to take this opportunity to convey his best wishes for success to the Council.

Yours sincerely,

Susana Malcorra
Chef de Cabinet

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Pacific Council on International Policy, it is my great pleasure to invite you to join us as a marquee level speaker at the Pacific Council's annual Members Weekend, which will be held in Santa Monica, California on October 17 and 18, 2014. Our members would be honored to hear from you.

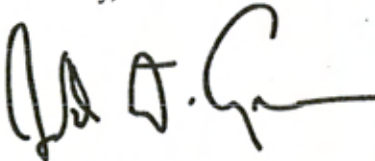

As the premier membership-based international affairs organization in Southern California, the non-partisan Pacific Council on International Policy is committed to building the vast potential of the West Coast of the United States for impact on global issues, discourse and policy. Our signature annual event, the Members Weekend assembles over 300 national and international leaders in business, politics, entertainment, the arts, and the public and private sectors. As a marquee level speaker, you will address an informed and sophisticated audience in a dynamic and engaging forum.

Each year, the Weekend's speakers include prominent foreign public figures, current and past U.S. administration officials, key global business leaders, and some of the leading thinkers of our time. The Pacific Council has recently hosted former Secretary of Defense Robert Gates, former National Security Advisor Thomas E. Donilon, former Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton, Commander of U.S. Central Command General Lloyd Austin, President of the European Commission Jose Manuel Barroso, Executive Chairman of Google Eric Schmidt and countless other impressive interlocutors on defense, security, and foreign policy issues. I hope that you, too, will be able to participate.

Please let us know if you will join us in October and, if so, we will follow up with detailed information about the conference. Please also consider this letter as a "standing invitation" for you to join us throughout the year if you are unable to do so in October. Ms. Beril Unver, our Senior Programs Officer and point of contact for this conference, can be reached directly with any inquiries at bunver@pacificcouncil.org or 213.221.2005.

Our Board co-chairs, the Honorable Mickey Kantor and Ambassador Robert H. Tuttle, join me in this invitation. It would be our great pleasure to have you with us in Los Angeles.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jerrold D. Green
