

Note to the Secretary-General*The 2008 National Model United Nations*Tuesday, 18 March 2008

You have agreed to address the 2008 National Model United Nations' opening ceremony, to be held on Tuesday, 18 March 2008 at 6:00 p.m., at the General Assembly Hall.

Please find attached the proposed scenario. Upon arrival at GA 200, you will be received by the President of the G.A. and by Ambassador Joseph H. Melrose, Jr., President of the National Collegiate Conference Association. Shortly after, you will proceed together to the GA Hall for the opening ceremony. At the end of the ceremony, Ms. Erin Kennedy, Secretary-General of the National Model United Nations will present you and the President of the GA with a gift.

Thank you.

Kim Won-soo
17 March 2008

Proposed Scenario for the Secretary-General

The 2008 National Model United Nations

Tuesday, 18 March 2008

Venue: General Assembly Hall

Time: 6:00 – 6:30 p.m.

6:00pm

- The Secretary-General arrives at the GA 200 where he is greeted by the President of the General Assembly and Ambassador Joseph H. Melrose, Jr., President of the National Collegiate Conference Association.

6:05pm

- The Secretary-General and the President of the GA arrive at the GA hall and take their seats on the podium.
- The President of the GA calls the meeting to order.
- Remarks by the President of the GA.
- The President of the GA gives the floor to the Secretary-General.
- Remarks by the Secretary-General.
- The President of the General Assembly introduces the Secretary-General of the National Model United Nations, Ms. Erin Kennedy.
- Ms. Erin Kennedy will present the Secretary-General and the President of the GA with a gift.
- At the request of Ms. Kennedy, the students will applause to thank the Secretary-General and the President of the GA.

6:30 (Approx.)

- The Secretary-General and the President of the GA will then depart.

END