OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Baden-Baden, 6th August 2014

Welcome Address to the 4th IWF Forum Baden-Baden, 17th October 2014

Dear Mr. Deputy Secretary-General,

Dr. Srgjan Kerim has informed me of your support of my request concerning a video message by the Secretary-General of the United Nations to the delegates of the 4th International Economic Forum IWF on 17th October 2014 in Baden-Baden (Germany). Thank you very much indeed for this support.

He has also told me that you have agreed to send such a welcome address to Baden-Baden yourself if the Secretary-General's extremely busy schedule does not allow a positive answer to this request. Thank you so much for this, too.

Please allow me to tell you, on behalf of the board of trustees of the IWF, that we would consider it a great honour if you were to speak to the participants of the congress through a video message. Naturally, we would be more than happy to send you all the necessary information. The enclosed copy of a letter to the Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon will give you a brief overview.

Most respectfully

Dr. Reinhard Hofmann

Welcome Address to the 4th IWF Forum Baden-Baden, 17th October 2014

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

? (not in corlog)

please allow me to come back to my letter, in which I have asked you to send a video message to the participants of the 4th International Economic Forum IWF, which will take place on 17th October 2014 in Baden-Baden (Germany). At the time, I guess your extremely busy schedule does not allow a positive answer. Please reconsider our request before taking a final decision.

The board of trustees of the Economic Forum has asked me to present this request to you once again.

The congress, which brings together the competence of internationally renowned experts, addresses the political, economic, social and cultural consequences of the globalization process. The role of the UN will come into focus on many occasions, in particular through the President of the 62nd session of the United Nations General Assembly, Dr. Srgjan Kerim. Moreover, the ambassadors of the member states of the Southern African Development Community (SADC) will take part in the congress. The Minister of Finance of the Federal Republic of Germany, Dr. Wolfgang Schäuble, will act as a patron to the event.

Dear Mr. Secretary-General, the board of trustees of the IWF and myself would consider it a great honour if you were to accept our request. You have already received a draft of a welcome address. If you are unable to give the address, we would very much appreciate your support of a welcome address by the Deputy Secretary-General, Mr. Jan Eliasson.

Most respectfully

Dr. Reinhard Hofmann
