THE DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2014

Dear Mr. Eurnekian,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your e-mail dated 28 May 2014, inviting him to attend the Award Ceremony at which the Congress of the United States, will present the Congressional Gold Medal to Mr. Raoul Wallenberg, in Washington, D.C. on 9 July 2014.

The Secretary-General appreciates your kind invitation. Unfortunately, he will not be able to attend the Award Ceremony, in view of prior commitments and pressing demands already on his schedule on the said date. Nevertheless, allow me to take this opportunity to convey his best wishes for a successful event.

I would be grateful if you could convey this response to the Founder of the International Raoul Wallenberg Foundation, Mr. Baruch Tenenbaum, who co-signed the invitation.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read 'Jan Eliasson', is written over a horizontal line.

History: This message has been replied to.

rommel,

josiane has asked for my views on this item. i don't think there is any need for sg to send a representative or message. wallenberg is a historic figure of course, but there's no specific un connection these days beyond the generalized founding of the un in the aftermath of world war two. most importantly, i'm not sure it's prudent of us to get involved with an award being bestowed by the u.s. congress. you might also wish to ask the political unit and/or dpi/unic washington. thanks for asking.

best,
richard

Can you pls. regret SA's participation?

Dear Friend,

On behalf of the International Raoul Wallenberg Foundation and the Raoul Wallenberg Centennial Celebration Commission, we are pleased to inform you that on July 9, 2014, the Congress of the United States will be presenting its highest civilian award, the Congressional Gold Medal to Raoul Wallenberg.

Exactly 70 years earlier, on July 9, 1944, Raoul

Dear Richard,

SA is unlikely to be able to travel to DC on 9 July.

However, do you think there needs to be any other form of involvement on his side (message, representation?) in view of the historic role of Raoul Wallenberg during WWII?

Thanks,

CONFIDENTIAL

Wallenberg arrived in Budapest to begin what is now recognized as the largest life-saving action during the Holocaust; presenting the Gold Medal on this date will allow the world to properly honor the heroism of this great man.

The International Raoul Wallenberg Foundation has joined forces with the Wallenberg Commission which was established in 2012 to honor Raoul Wallenberg's centennial and both entities are the driving force behind the efforts to commemorate Wallenberg with the Congressional Gold Medal - legislation introduced by Senator Kirsten Gillibrand and Representative Gregory Meeks - keeping with our mission of "reminding the world never to forget" a man who represents the motto "one man can make a difference."

In conjunction with the office of Speaker John Boehner and the Congressional leadership, we invite you to participate at the official Ceremony which will be held on July 9, 2014, at 3pm, in the United States Capitol followed by a Congressional reception at 4 pm.

Please note: The date July 9, 2014 is not public until you receive the official invitation. This email is for planning purposes ONLY.
