

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

16 January 2014

Excellency,

Please accept my congratulations on your assumption of the office of Secretary General of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) on 1 January 2014.

Under the leadership of Professor Ekmeleddin İhsanoğlu, the OIC has been an active player in promoting peace and security, good governance, human rights and the rule of law as well as better understanding across countries, cultures and civilizations. I am convinced that the OIC, under your guidance, will continue on the same path.

The OIC is a trusted partner of the United Nations. As the two largest international organizations, the OIC and the United Nations have an important responsibility to address people's aspirations for a better life in a fast-changing world. Working together in the years to come, we can further strengthen the momentum for building a more peaceful, prosperous world.

I look forward to working closely with you personally, including in the light of the special session of the Security Council on UN-OIC Cooperation of 28 October 2013, during which both our Organizations reconfirmed their determination to reinforce collaboration in areas of common interest.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

BAN Ki-moon
