

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

16 January 2013

Excellency,

I wish to thank you for the warm wishes conveyed in your letter of 27 December 2012. Let me also extend my congratulations to you in your position as Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Kyrgyz Republic.

I highly value the excellent relationship that the United Nations and the Kyrgyz Republic have developed over the last twenty years. As you are aware, the United Nations was able to provide concrete support to stabilization efforts in the Kyrgyz Republic after the dramatic events of 2010 and contributed to the country's successful transition to a parliamentary democracy. I appreciate our close cooperation with the Kyrgyz Government in these efforts, as well as the active engagement of the Kyrgyz Republic with the United Nations in the region.

I wish to assure you that the United Nations remains committed to continuing its support to the Kyrgyz Republic to promote peace, sustainable development and prosperity for its people. I also look forward to working closely with you personally in the period ahead.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Bishkek, "27" December 2012

Your Excellency,

Let me congratulate you on the occasion of the forthcoming New Year.

It is a pleasure to note that the past year will remain as a symbol of the 20th Anniversary of cooperation between the Kyrgyz Republic and the United Nations. During this period, we have achieved many goals and we are ready to continue further cooperation in the sphere of national development agenda, which I believe will become even more effective during the membership of our country in the ECOSOC.

With deep gratitude I emphasize the support of the United Nations to our efforts in promotion of sustainable peace and development, social stability as well as advancement of effective democratic governance in the Kyrgyz Republic.
