Note for the file

(Dictadted but not read by Rafeeuddin Ahmed)

The Chargé d'Affaires of the Permanent Mission of Thailand to the United Nations, Mr. Chuchai Kasemsarn, telephoned Mr. Ahmed in the evening of 22 January 1985. Mr. Kasemsarn said he wished to convey an urgent message from the Government in Bangkok concerning the Secretary-General's upcoming visit to Thailand :

"The UN representation in Bangkok, headed by Mr. Kunugi, met with the Director-General for International Organizations of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Mr. Nitya Pibbulsonggram, on 22 January and told him that, despite the message received at United Nations Headquarters from the Permanent Secretary of the Foreign Ministry, the UN Secretary-General still preferred to pay his visit to the border on 1 February

Bangkok would wish that the Secretary-General be informed that :

(a) Prime Minister Prem has endorsed 27 January as the date for the visit to the refugee centres.

(b) It would require about one day to make any arrangements for a change in the scheduling. Also, the places the Secretary-General would visit have been selected "from a humanitarian point of view".

(c) The logistics for this type of visit are enormously complicated. There will be very little time for its scheduling on 1 February.

(d) It is likely that the meeting between the Secretary-General and Prince Sihanouk will be arranged for 1 February.

(e) The Thai Government wished to reiterate that it has no intention to put the Secretary-General in an awkward position vis-à-vis the Vietnamese. However, it would strongly recommend that the Secretary-General visit the refugee centres on 27 January, before his visit to Hanoi."

* ***** *

I received a telephone call from Mrs. Phenchome Chakorn of the Permanent Mission of Thailand, this morning. She repeated the above message to me, with the request that I make sure Mr. Ahmed had received it.

QUOTE:

UPON THE INSTRUCTIONS OF MY GOVERNMENT, I HAVE THE HONOUR TO BRING TO YOUR ATTENTION THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THAILAND ON 18 JANUARY 1985 CLARIFYING PRESS REPORTS ON THE RELOCATION OF 62,000 DISPLACED KAMPUCHEAN PERSONS FROM RED HILL (KHAO HIN NG) TO KHAO I DANG REFUGEE HOLDING CENTER:

BEGIN

1. THE RELOCATION OF THE 62,000 KAMPUCHEAN DISPLACED PERSONS, WHO ENTERED THAILAND AS A RESULT OF THE RECENT VIETNAMESE OFFENSIVE AGAINST THEIR ENCAMPMENTS, WAS MADE OUT OF HUMANITARIAN REASONS AND OUT OF THAILAND'S SECURITY AND STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS. THE RELOCATION WILL BE TEMPORARY AND THEY WILL RETURN TO KAMPUCHEA ONCE IT IS SAFE FOR THEM TO DO SO. THE QUESTION OF VOLUNTARY REPATRIATION OR RESETTLEMENT IN THIRD COUNTRIES WILL NOT ARISE.

2. THE RELOCATION WAS ALSO MADE ON THE CONSIDERATION THAT VIETNAMESE BRUTALITY AGAINST THE KHMER CIVILIANS IS WELL KNOWN AND THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT SIMPLY HAD NO CHOICE. THE RELOCATION WILL NOT SERVE AS A PRECEDENT.

3. THE RELOCATION WAS DISCUSSED IN ADVANCE AMONG ALL THE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES CONCERNED AND WITH THE CONCURRENCE OF THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED NATIONS RESPONSIBLE. ALL HAD AGREED THAT THIS WAS THE RIGHT COURSE OF ACTION FOR THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT TO TAKE.

THAILAND IS TRADITIONALLY A HUMANITARIAN COUNTRY AND WILL REMAIN SO. THERE IS NO CHANGE WHATSOEVER IN REGARD TO THE POLICY CONCERNING DISPLACED PERSONS FROM KAMPUCHEA, LAOS, OR VIETNAM.

Kavanagh has informed me of his telecon with you today, 21 January, and of his getting back to you with the Secretary-General's instructions thereafter. You should know that, later in the day, Kavanagh received a message from Permanent Secretary of Thai Foreign Ministry, addressed to Rafee in London, suggesting that Thai proposals regarding SecGen's visits to camps was to acquaint him with humanitarian problems and not of course to create any political difficulties. Just in case Foreign Ministry should take the position with you that they had now referred this matter to the SecGen, through Rafee in London, you should know that Rafee is still in New York and that SecGen's position naturally remains as communicated to you over telephone by Kavanagh.

Note for Mr. Dayal

1. Please see Mr. Ahmed's note regarding his conversation with Ambassador Kasemsri, attached.

2. Should the Secretary-General agree, Mr. Ahmed would like to tell the Ambassador that the Secretary-General had given the matter careful consideration before proposing the alternative date of 1 February for the visit of Khao I Dang and that accordingly his preference continued to be for that date.

3. Mr. Ahmed now feels that we are in an eyeball to eyeball situation, but that the Thais will relent if we hold our ground. He considers it very possible that the Thai Ambassador would raise the matter at this evening's dinner.

J. P. Kavanagh
18 January 1985

P.S. Furthermore Mr. Ahmed recalls that the Thai side had originally proposed the airport as one of three possible locations for the press conference. (The other two were the hotel and ESCAP headquarters). Accordingly, he feels that we should also insist on the airport. I might add that in an earlier discussion with my liaison counterpart in the Thai Mission, she pointed out that a press conference at the hotel would have budgetary implications for her authorities, while the airport would not.

THANKS YOUR CKY02-01.
AAA. AS INDICATED MY CKY003, MEETING TOOK PLACE TODAY 18 JAN AT MFA WITH PARTICIPATION OF NSC (NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL), SUPREME COMMAND, UNBRO, UNHCR AND ICRC.
BBB. DURING THE DISCUSSION IT BECAME QUITE CLEAR THAT DECISION TO MOVE RED HILL POPULATION TO KID HAD BEEN TAKEN BY SUPREME COMMAND WITHOUT CONCURRENCE OR KNOWLEDGE OF MFA OR NSC. REPRENTATIVE OF NSC WENT AS FAR AS STATING THAT THE DECISION DOES NOT COINCIDE WITH THE PRESENT POLICY OF RTG.
CCC. AFTER SUPREME COMMAND AND NSC GAVE CLARIFICATIONS, NITYA WHO CHAIRED THE MEETING SUMMARIZED THE POSITION OF RTG AS FOLLOWS:
FIRST. TRANSFER OF RED HILL POPULATION TO KID IS A TEMPORARY MEASURE BASED ON HUMANITARIAN CONSIDERATIONS FOR SAFETY OF THE POP
-ULATION. STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS AND REQUIREMENT OF THE ARMED FORCE
S
IN THE BORDER ARE ARE OTHER IMPORTANT FACTORS.
SECOND. CHOICE OF KID IS INCIDENTAL. IT IS BEING USED AS ANOTHER EVACUATION SITE BECAUSE NECESSARY FACILITIES ALREADY EXIST TO ACCOMOD ATE
THE POPULATION. IN FACT A DIFFERENT NAME MAY BE USED FOR THE TEMPORAR Y
SITE.
THIRD. AS THE MOVE IS TEMPORARY AND IS NOT EXPECTED TO LAST MORE THAN 60 DAYS, NO POLICY OR LEGAL IMPLICATIONS NEED TO BE CONSIDERED. THE EVACUEES WILL NOT HAVE STATUS SIMILAR TO REFUGEES ALREADY IN KID UNDER UNHCR CARE AND MAINTENANCE, AND CONSEQUENTLY AT THE TIME OF THEIR RETURN TO THE BORDER, QUESTION OF VOLUNTARY NATURE OF THEIR RELOCATION OR REPATRIATION WILL NOT ARISE.
DDD. NITYA THEN PROPOSED THAT ALL PARTICIPANTS ADOPT A COMMON POSITION VIS-A-VIS THE PRESS AND EMBASSIES ON THE BAIS OF CCC ABOVE. WHILE WE NOTED WITH APPRECIATION THE EXPLANATIONS PROVIDED BY THE RTG AND ASSURED OUR FULL CO-OPERATION, WE POLITELY DECLINED TO BE ASSOCIATED WITH INTERPRETATION OF THE POLICY AND LEGAL IMPLICATIONS REGARDING THE STATUS OF THE GROUP WHEN ACCOMODATED IN KID. EYE ASSURED NITYA THAT AFTER CAREFUL CONSIDERATION OF THE INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE RTG BY THE UNITED NATIONS AND APPROPRIATE CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN VARIOUS AGENCIES INVOLVED, WE WOULD REVERT TO THE QUESTION OF POLICY AND LONG TERM IMPLICATIONS AS FAR AS IT CONCERNS THE UNITED NATIONS.
EEE. EYE TOOK THE OPPORTUNITY TO REITERATE FOLLOWING VIEWS EARLIER CONVYED TO NITYA ON ANOTHER OCCASION IN JUNE 1984:
FIRST. UNITED NATIONS KAMPUCHEAN HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE IS ESSENTIAL LY
A MULTILATERAL INTERNATIONAL OPERATION AND NOT A COLLECTIVITY OF BILATERAL ASSISTANCE.
SECOND. WHILE CONSENT AND CO-OPERATION OF HOST GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES ARE ESSENTIAL, WE WOULD APPRECIATE PRIOR CONSULTATIONS ON MAJOR CHANGES IN OPERATION HAVING POLICY IMPLICATIONS SO THAT THE DONOR COMMUNITY COULD BE ADVISED OF PROPOSED CHANGES AS NECESSARY.
THIRD. FOR PURPOSE OF SUCH CONSULTATIONS AND RELEVANT NOTIFICATIONS, WE HOPE MFA WILL CONTINUE TO SERVE AS OFFICIAL CHANNEL TO AVOID CONFUSING SIGNALS FROM DIFFERENT AUTHORITIES.
FFF. ALTHOUGH THE INDICATIONS PRIOR TO THE MEETING WAS IT WAS GOING TO OE A PRO FORMA EXERCISE, THE FRANK EXCHANGE OF VIEW MAY HAVE SET THE STAGE FOR A BETTER COORDINATION OF OUR FUTURE ACTIVITIES WITH REGARD TO THE BORDER. REGARDS.

FROM: Charles-Edouard Bourbonnière,

SUBJECT: Secretary-General's visit to Thailand
OBJET:

I have just been in touch by telephone with Mrs. Weil who is in Bangkok. She informs me that the negotiations with the Thai Authorities concerning the supplementary agreement required for the expansion of ESCAP conference facilities are going extremely well. There is every expectation that these negotiations should be concluded in time for the Thai Cabinet to approve the agreement at its next meeting on Tuesday 22nd January.

I hope to know more when I speak to Mrs. Weil again to-morrow and if there are any new developments I shall let you or Mr. Kavanagh know. In the meantime, we can still assume that the signing ceremony will indeed take place while the Secretary-General will be in Bangkok.

Concerning the remarks to be made by the Secretary-General at the ceremony, Mrs. Weil tells me that they are being prepared by the ESCAP Secretariat and that they will be available on the Secretary-General's arrival in Bangkok.

Note for the Secretary-General

Your visit to Khao I Dang, UNHCR Refugee Camp

1. You will recall that the Thai authorities included in their proposed programme a visit to Khao I Dang on Sunday, 27 January, i.e. prior to your visit to Hanoi (Monday 28 - Wednesday 30 January). We were somewhat relieved to find that they did not propose a visit to the border camps, the area of current hostilities, some 30 kms away and accordingly the Thai proposal was accepted.

2. There matters rested until last Monday, 14 January, when UNBRO Bangkok advised that the Thai government intended to move to Khao I Dang a total of 62,000 people who had lived in Ampil camp on the border, which has been overrun recently by Vietnamese forces. The present population of Khao I Dang holding centre is just over 30,000 persons, most of whom have been there since 1979. Clearly the character of Khao I Dang will have been changed prior to your visit, with the influx of tens of thousands of persons direct from the battle area. Accordingly, it was decided that Mr. Ahmed would tell Ambassador Kasemsri, on your behalf,

- that you were concerned that your visit to Khao I Dang should not be overdramatized or charged unnecessarily,

- that any over-dramatization could affect the atmosphere of your entire trip and negatively affect your prospects to help the situation.

As of now, Mr. Ahmed has been unable to contact Ambassador Kasemsri to deliver this demarche.

3. Now Mr. Kunugi, recently returned from Phnom Penh, suggests strongly that your visit to Khao I Dang should take place after your visit to Hanoi. Mr. Ahmed agrees. He takes this view because a controversial visit to Khao I Dang before Hanoi could colour your talks with Vietnamese leaders. The only opening in the programme, after Hanoi, is the morning of Friday 1 February, following your return from Chiang Mai. You are scheduled to meet the press at the hotel that afternoon, prior to your departure for Malaysia. Should you go to Khao I Dang that day, we could postpone the press conference to the airport.

Monsieur le Secrétaire-Général,

J'ai l'honneur de vous demander de bien vouloir faire circuler le télégramme ci-joint en date du 12 janvier 1985 que vous a adressé S.A.R. ADRESSE A

S.E. M. JAVIER PEREZ DE CUELLAR,
SECRETAIRE-GENERAL DE L'O.N.U.

Monsieur le Secrétaire-Général,

J'ai l'honneur de solliciter de Votre Excellence qui a toujours eu beaucoup de compassion pour le peuple Cambodgien, qu'elle veuille bien intervenir auprès de la République Socialiste du Vietnam, membre de l'O.N.U., afin qu'elle mette fin aux attaques lancées souventes fois par son armée contre la population civile Khmère vivant dans les camps de réfugiés se trouvant à la frontière Kampuchea Thailande.

Cette population civile n'a commis aucun crime contre le Vietnam. C'est la République Socialiste du Vietnam qui est criminelle car elle méprise l'O.N.U., refuse avec insolence de respecter les justes résolutions de l'O.N.U. sur le Kampuchea, asservit le peuple et le pays Khmers et colonise sans vergogne le Kampuchea, membre de l'O.N.U.. Les réfugiés Khmers victimes des attaques très meurtrières des forces armées vietnamiennes ont dû quitter leurs villages, maisons, rizières, champs à cause de l'oppression multiforme exercée depuis 1979 par les colonialistes vietnamiens et leurs valets, groupe de Héng Samrin-Hun Sén.

L'O.N.U. n'est pas encore en mesure de nous aider à résoudre ce douloureux problème dont la République Socialiste du Vietnam est entièrement responsable. Mais je me permets de demander à Votre Excellence de bien vouloir faire tout ce qui est en votre pouvoir afin que :

premièrement:

- l'armée vietnamienne au Kampuchea cesse de saigner, mutiler et assassiner le peuple Khmer et deuxièmement:

- les pays riches et libéraux dans le monde aient la bonté d'accepter chaque année un plus grand nombre de ces très infortunés réfugiés Khmers car la Thaïlande a déjà fait pour eux plus que le maximum imaginable sans compter le devoir qu'elle doit accomplir vis-à-vis des citoyens et citoyennes thais vivant près de la frontière du Kampuchea et que les agresseurs vietnamiens n'ont pas hésité à attaquer très cruellement et injustement.

En vous remerciant pour tout ce que vous pourrez faire pour adoucir quelque peu le sort du peuple Khmer qui ne mérite pas tous ces malheurs, Je pris Votre Excellence, d'agréer les assurances de ma plus haute considération.

THE SITUATION IN KAMPUCHEA

- JANUARY 1985 -

During the past 1984, thanks to our national unity, we have overcome all obstacles and have won greater victories than in the previous years, in all fields at home and abroad. We can say that, thanks to these 1984 victories, our struggle for national survival has reached a new turning point.

I. MILITARY SITUATION

Since early 1984, the resounding news of our victories won over the Vietnamese enemy in the towns of Battambang, Siemreap, Kompong Thom and Pursat, have shown that these four provinces of the Tonle Sap region have now become hot battlefields. Since then, our forces have remained there. Furthermore, we have sent successive military reinforcements and our forces are now active in the province of Kompong Chhnang. The guerrillas and the National Army of Democratic Kampuchea (NADK) are intensifying their "five targets" attack in the five provinces, in the Tonle Sap region and elsewhere in the country: They cut the enemy's transportation lines, especially the railroads. They wipe out the Vietnamese administrative apparatus in the villages. They assail the Vietnamese military strongholds. They disintegrate the Kampuchean soldiers forcibly enlisted by the Vietnamese aggressors. They attack the Vietnamese mopping-up forces. They assault district and provincial towns.

The development of the military situation can be clearly summed up as follows:

In 1979, when the 250,000 Vietnamese aggressors were mobilized in order to capture the capital Phnom Penh, they seemed very mighty. But later on, these forces have had to spread far and wide so as to defend themselves from the attacks of our guerrillas and the NADK. Thanks to their lofty heroism and ardent patriotism, the latter have worn out the Vietnamese forces, protected and strengthened themselves up to the point where now they force the Vietnamese aggressors to flock together and dare not spread out any more.

By entering into 1985, we are now almost in the middle of the 7th dry season of the Vietnamese invasions. We have kept our initiatives in the military field by attacking the Vietnamese aggressors along the western border and in the Tonle Sap region which is the most important battlefield for us, according to the principle: "to attack in order to defend ourselves". We have launched attacks around the towns of Battambang, Mongkolborey, Sisophon, along the Mongkolborey river and the Sangker river, along the NH5, NH6, around the towns of Kompong Thom, Siemreap and Pursat and along the Tonle Sap river. We have cut the railroad, especially from the east of Pursat town to the villages of Kdol, Kraingskea, Romeas, Kraing Lovea, south of Kompong Chhnang town and carried out our military activities in the northwest of the capital Phnom Penh.

As they have been too busy to defend themselves from our attacks in the above-mentioned regions, the Vietnamese enemy have not enough forces to launch powerful attacks against us in the western border regions. Furthermore, we have put a check on their attempts to take over some of our strategic hills and positions as they planned for this 7th dry season, as a first step, in order to launch, later on, their offensives against us along the western border.

They have sent regiments supported by cannon 105mm, 120mm and 130mm and by tanks to launch attack against us in south Sisophon, Pailin and Samlaut. But our counter-attack have put all their attempts to failures.

Recently, on 21 December, the Vietnamese enemy mobilized four regiments to attack us in upper Koh Kong , abreast and behind, supported by several thousand shell-fires. Nevertheless, our forces succeeded in cutting them into pieces and inflicted on them many hundred casualties, wounded or killed.

A striking fact which has appeared during the present 7th dry season is that the Vietnamese enemy are using, in the western border region and in the Tonle Sap region, more heavy artillery than during the previous years. In the Tonle Sap region, they are also using more airplanes for bombing and machine-gunning. The reason is that they have not enough infantry forces and the morale of their soldiers has very much declined.

In short, in the military field, the situation is more favourable for us than in the 1984 dry season. The Vietnamese enemy are facing more difficulties than in the previous dry-seasons.

II. POLITICAL SITUATION

As for the political field, our situation is also better than the previous years. As we have wiped out the Vietnamese administrative apparatus in the villages, especially in the Tonle Sap region, we have succeeded in eliminating successively the Vietnamese administrative apparatus network. Our people can now move more easily to make their living. Therefore, the people give us more support, put more trust in our struggle and cooperate with us, in various forms, in the struggle against the Vietnamese aggressors, according to their capabilities and possibilities.

In such a situation, the Vietnamese enemy have carried out more savage repression against the people. In the provinces of Kratie (northeast region), Svay Rieng (southeast), Takeo (south), ..., they have mobilized many people, young and old, and forced them to abandon their homes and properties, their villages and their crops still in the ricefields and sent them to the western region to build and defend their transportation lines at the western border. They have looted the crops and forced the population to give rice to their army.

They continue to use chemical products by pouring them into ponds or by shelling chemical gas.

All these Vietnamese barbarous crimes cannot relieve the Vietnamese aggressors of their situation of defeat. On the contrary, all these genocidal crimes have strengthened the national unity of the Kampuchean people in their struggle against the Vietnamese aggressors.

The Coalition Government of Democratic Kampuchea (CGDK) has been also strengthened. We have solved problems through consultations based on the Declaration of Kuala Lumpur and on the enhancement of our common duty to ever strengthen our national unity against the Vietnamese enemy.

During 1984 last which has just elapsed, as they were in an impasse in all fields, military, political and diplomatic, the Vietnamese enemy, the Soviet Union and their supporters, carried out many deceitful manoeuvres, aiming at splitting our tripartite Coalition Government of Democratic Kampuchea. But, all these manoeuvres failed. Through its activities to foil these deceitful manoeuvres, the CGDK has acquired experiences and a better knowledge of the hypocrisy, perfidy and machiavelism which characterize the true nature of the Vietnamese enemy.

III. INTERNATIONAL SITUATION

In the international arena, the world community has granted stronger support to the just struggle of the Kampuchean people and to the United Nations resolution demanding the total withdrawal of Vietnamese forces from Kampuchea. The number of countries supporting that resolution has increased up to 110.

To sum up, from 1979 up to now, our struggle has made a big step forward thanks to our own efforts to overcome all difficulties in the military, political, economic and diplomatic fields, and thanks to the active support given by our many friends the world over. In the war against the very stubborn and cruel Vietnamese aggressors, such a step forward is a great one. It can be compared to water which flood every where.

Through 6 dry seasons, 6 rainy seasons, and almost half of 7th dry season, our army and people have acquired experiences in their fighting against the Vietnamese aggressors and their struggle to foil all the Vietnamese manoeuvres. The international community has got also experiences and a better knowledge of Vietnam which is an aggressor, an expansionist and a soviet military base.

Thus, in taking into account all the obstacles and complex problems we still have to overcome, we can state the following:

1). There is no problem of being defeated by the Vietnamese aggressors;

2). There is no problem of getting neither victory nor defeat;

3). Our people, our CGDK will win definitely.

The Vietnamese enemy cannot evade the total withdrawal of their forces of aggression from Kampuchea. It is with that strong belief that all of us are determined to continue to hold aloft the banner of national unity, to overcome all obstacles in our multi-form struggle against the Vietnamese aggressors until they are compelled to implement the United Nations resolutions, and withdraw all their forces from Kampuchea.

IV. VIETNAMESE CRIMES AGAINST REFUGEE CAMPS ALONG THE KAMPUCHEA-THAILAND BORDER

Lately, the Vietnamese enemy have mobilized their forces and heavy artillery to launch attack against the Kampuchean refugee camp of Nong Chan. On 25 December, they attacked Nong Samet, killing or wounding many dozen people among the Kampuchean refugees who have fled their genocidal war of aggression, destroying the shelters and properties of these refugees and forcing many ten thousand refugees to flee.

We condemn most vigorously these Vietnamese attacks against the defenceless Kampuchean refugees and appeal to the international community and the United Nations to continue exerting any kind of pressure on the Hanoi authorities to compel them to implement the 6 UN resolutions demanding the total and unconditional withdrawal of Vietnamese forces of aggression from Kampuchea so as to enable the people of Kampuchea to decide themselves their own destiny and live in an independent, neutral and non-aligned Kampuchea.

The barbarous Vietnamese attacks against the Kampuchean refugee camps cannot, in any way, change their situation of defeat in the whole battlefield of Kampuchea.

The party of Democratic Kampuchea, and the NADK express their deep sympathy and strong solidarity with the people in the refugee camps of Nong Chan and Nong Samet. They are determined to intensify their attacks against the Vietnamese enemy everywhere in the country so as to immobilize their forces. Especially in the Tonle Sap region, the NADK continue to cut the enemy's transportation lines, to wipe out the Vietnamese administrative apparatus, to attack the enemy in the political, military and food supply fields, so that the Vietnamese enemy face more and more difficulties to carry out their crimes against the nation and people of Kampuchea. The NADK is determined to develop its cooperation with the other parties of the CGDK and the refugees of Nong Chan and Nong Samet.

In 1985, as they are in a deeper impasse than ever, the Vietnamese enemy and their supporters will carry out more deceitful manoeuvres aimed at splitting our CGDK. But, based on our experiences, especially those in 1984, acquired in our successful struggle to foil all Vietnamese manoeuvres, we are convinced that our CGDK will continue uniting in its struggle until we achieve our sacred task to drive all Vietnamese aggressors out of Kampuchea.

Note for the file

I called the Chargé d'Affaires of the Permanent Mission of Thailand to the United Nations, Mr. Chuchai Kasemsarn, to inform him that the programme for the Secretary-General's visit to Thailand was, indeed, too heavily charged to allow the inclusion of a meeting with Mr. Son Sann at one of the encampments along the Thai/Kampuchean border. Moreover, a previously-received request from the Ambassador of Democratic Kampuchea, that the Secretary-General meet with Prince Sihanouk under similar circumstances, could also not be accepted, for the same reason. Mr. Kasemsarn promised to convey this information to his Government.

NOTE FOR THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Subject: Official visit to Thailand, 25 January-1 February 1985

1. I attach for your consideration the programme which has been proposed by the Thai Government. It has been reviewed by Messrs. Ahmed, Giuliani and Kibria. There would appear to be five speaking occasions, viz.: (i) the lease signing ceremony on Saturday, 26 January; (ii) the Prime Minister's banquet that evening; (iii) address to ESCAP staff on Thursday, 31 January; (iv) brief toast at ESCAP lunch on the same day; and (v) a toast at the King's dinner that evening.

2. The Thais had suggested originally that you visit Khao I Dang (KID) Refugee Camp, located some distance from the border and the area of current hostilities, either on Sunday, 27 January or Friday, 1 February, i.e. either before or after your visit to Hanoi. Today, however, they have suggested an audience with the King on 31 January in Chiang Mai, northern Thailand. There is also the possibility of a dinner in Chiang Mai that evening and this would necessitate an overnight stay in the north. You would return to Bangkok on the morning of 1 February. The effect of this is that the visit to KID could not take place on the morning of 1 February and would have to go ahead on Sunday, 27 January. KID is run by the UNHCR and is less than an hour from Bangkok by helicopter.

3. We have sought the advice of Mrs. Weil's Office regarding the lease-signing ceremony, suggested for Saturday, 26 January. ESCAP and the Thai authorities have not yet agreed on the terms of a new lease for the land beneath the UN buildings. It is felt, however, that the possibility of your signing the new agreement could precipitate a speedy conclusion to the negotiations. You may wish, therefore, to agree tentatively to sign the new agreement, if it is ready. Mrs. Weil will be in Bangkok in early January and she will advise further.

4. A separate programme is being prepared for Madam Pérez de Cuéllar for the afternoon of Saturday, 26 January. Would Madam wish to join you for the possible trip to KID Refugee Camp on Sunday, 27 January?. Likewise, would Madam wish to be with you for the visit to the ESCAP offices on the morning of Thursday, 31 January or would she prefer to have a separate programme drawn up? The wives of Amb. Kasemsri and Mr. Kibria would be on hand to accompany her throughout.

Mr. Ahmed,

The Secretary-General's visit to Thailand

The Permanent Mission has informed me that they expect a full, formal toast and response by the SG at the Prime Minister's banquet on the evening of 26 January.

Moreover, they expect the SG to read some brief, informal remarks at the working dinner hosted by the Vice-Minister on the evening of 30 January.

The SG, they envisage, will make some very brief, off-the-cuff, remarks at the working luncheon, hosted by the Foreign Minister on 26 January.

There will be no formal remarks at the SG and Madam's private audience in Chiang Mai on 31 January. Nor will there be any toast at their Majesties' dinner that evening.

KHAO I DANG CAMP FOR KAMPUCHEAN REFUGEES – POPULATION AS OF MID-JAN. 1985: 29,940

Situated in Prachinburi Province some 30 kilometres north of the town of Aranyaprathet in eastern Thailand, Khao I Dang Camp was opened on 21 Nov. 1979 when a first group of nearly 5,000 Kampucheans was brought in from the border by the Royal Thai Army. Only four days earlier site preparation had begun. Arrivals continued so that by the end of May 1980 the camp population peaked at 130,000. It was said at the time that Khao I Dang was the largest "city" of Kampucheans in the world (Phnom Penh having nearly been emptied of people in the years after 1975).

UNHCR's role at Khao I Dang is to provide protection and assistance and seek durable solutions for the refugees. UNHCR works closely with the Royal Thai Government's Supreme Command and Task Force 80 staff who oversee administration of the camp. In many areas of assistance, UNHCR programmes are carried out by voluntary agency personnel.

The refugees themselves construct and maintain their bamboo and thatch shelters. Many grow vegetables to supplement the basic diet provided by UNHCR which consists of 500 grams of rice per adult daily, as well as pulses and fresh food, including fish or meat and vegetables. The rations supply adults with about 2,275 calories per day. For pregnant and lactating mothers and children found to be under standard weight for height there are supplementary feeding programmes. Monitoring teams of refugees check daily at the home level to ensure that the designated amounts of rations are being distributed.

Since many of the children at Khao I Dang received little or no schooling in the years before they came to Thailand, education is emphasized. There are Khmer language programmes for pre-school, primary and post-primary courses. Curriculum development projects resulted in the printing of large numbers of Khmer textbooks for teaching basic literacy and numeracy. There is a special school using innovative methods for the instruction of physically and mentally handicapped refugees. Non-formal classes in vocational skills training, handicrafts and dance have been well received.

Supplying water to Khao I Dang has been a problem since the outset. The search for underground sources was only partly successful and during 1980 as many as 100 water trucks daily hauled water from as far away as 55 kms. Since late 1982, following construction of a dam near Khao I Dang built with Japanese bilateral aid, providing water has been easier and less expensive. Refugees drink water from wells inside and outside the camp and use water from the dam's reservoir for other needs.

In 1984 an average of about 1,750 Kampuchean refugees departed from Thailand every month for resettlement in third countries. UNHCR fully documents refugees to find durable solutions for them including resettlement or voluntary repatriation as appropriate. Selection teams from the U.S., Australia, France, Canada, New Zealand, and Japan choose refugees on the basis of criteria such as having relatives in that country, having previously worked for an organization with links to that country, or for some compelling humanitarian or medical reason. While other countries no longer send selection teams to Thailand to interview refugees for resettlement, they continue to admit refugees primarily on the basis of close family ties, with information on these relatives being provided to them by UNHCR.

In January 1985 the Royal Thai Government decided to convert four sections of Khao I Dang into an Evacuation Site for some 60,000 Kampucheans who earlier were along the border at Nong Samet and then Red Hill. The U.N. Border Relief Operation (UNBRO) provides assistance for the people at this new site called Bang Poo.

The overall Indochinese refugee population in UNHCR-assisted camps in Thailand as of the end of 1984 was about 128,000 comprising 42,000 Kampucheans (at Khao I Dang and Phanat Nikhom), 54,000 Hilltribe people from Laos, 27,000 Lowland Lao and 5,000 Vietnamese, most of whom came to Thailand by boat.

Note for the file

The Chargé d'Affaires of the Permanent Mission of Thailand to the United Nations, Mr. Chuchai Kasemsarn, called me this afternoon, on the urgent instructions of his Government.

Bangkok felt that, during the Secretary-General's forthcoming visit to Thailand, it would be opportune for him to meet with Mr. Son Sann, at one of the border encampments. I replied that the Secretary-General's programme already looked rather charged but promised to give a formal reply as soon as possible.

I informed Mr. Dayal about this démarche and asked him to convey it to the Secretary-General with my recommendation that it be dealt with in the same manner as the proposal for a meeting with Prince Sihanouk.

I called Ambassador Thiounn of Democratic Kampuchea this morning and recalled that, when he had come to see me (28 December 1984), I had indicated that the itinerary for the Secretary-General's forthcoming trip had already been firmed up and it would be difficult to envisage changes at that time. Moreover, the Secretary-General hoped to be able to play a constructive role in the present situation and his chances to do so might be limited if he were to accept the proposal that the Ambassador had put forward. The Ambassador seemed to understand but added that he would still very much wish to brief the Secretary-General on the situation. A request for an appointment had laready been made to the Secretary-General's office.

Secretary-General's official visit to Thailand

As my colleague, Mr. Paul Kavanagh mentioned to Charles Wright on 28 December, the Thai Government has included in its draft programme for the Secretary-General's forthcoming official visit to Thailand provision for a lease-signing ceremony at ESCAP Headquarters. The ceremony would take place on Saturday, 26 January in the morning, the day following the Secretary-General's arrival in Bangkok. This proposal is being put to the Secretary-General, who is currently away from New York, and we shall await his response.

It is our understanding that agreement has yet to be reached with the Thai Government on the terms of the new lease, but that a text acceptable to both sides may be found during January. In these circumstances it would be appreciated if you could keep us advised on developments as they unfold over the coming weeks. In addition, you may wish to give some thought to the brief speech which the Secretary-General would presumably be required to make, should the signing ceremony go ahead.

For your information, the Secretary-General will depart New York for Europe and the Far East on Sunday, 20 January. He will be in Thailand from 25-28 January and from 30 January - 1 February, 1985.

SUBJECT: OBJET: Your visit to Thailand

Sir, I have been approached by the Ambassador of Thailand, who is an old friend of mine, with regard to the Program of your visit and Mrs. Pérez de Cuéllar's to Thailand from 25 January to 1 February 1985.

In spite of the fact that he has raised the points of the tentative program with Mr. Paul Kavanagh, he still sent me this tentative program and I felt that he is a little bit in a hurry to have your approval. He even mentioned that although this program is known in Thailand, no arrangement could be done there without prior approval.

The Ambassador of Thailand will appreciate tremendously having your earliest comment.

NOTE FOR THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Subject: Official visit to Thailand, 25 January-1 February 1985

1. I attach for your consideration the programme which has been proposed by the Thai Government. It has been reviewed by Messrs. Ahmed, Giuliani and Kibria. There would appear to be five speaking occasions, viz.: (i) the lease signing ceremony on Saturday, 26 January; (ii) the Prime Minister's banquet that evening; (iii) address to ESCAP staff on Thursday, 31 January; (iv) brief toast at ESCAP lunch on the same day; and (v) a toast at the King's dinner that evening.

2. The Thais had suggested originally that you visit Khao I Dang (KID) Refugee Camp, located some distance from the border and the area of current hostilities, either on Sunday, 27 January or Friday, 1 February, i.e. either before or after your visit to Hanoi. Today, however, they have suggested an audience with the King on 31 January in Chiang Mai, northern Thailand. There is also the possibility of a dinner in Chiang Mai that evening and this would necessitate an overnight stay in the north. You would return to Bangkok on the morning of 1 February. The effect of this is that the visit to KID could not take place on the morning of 1 February and would have to go ahead on Sunday, 27 January. KID is run by the UNHCR and is less than an hour from Bangkok by helicopter.

3. We have sought the advice of Mrs. Weil's Office regarding the lease-signing ceremony, suggested for Saturday, 26 January. ESCAP and the Thai authorities have not yet agreed on the terms of a new lease for the land beneath the UN buildings. It is felt, however, that the possibility of your signing the new agreement could precipitate a speedy conclusion to the negotiations. You may wish, therefore, to agree tentatively to sign the new agreement, if it is ready. Mrs. Weil will be in Bangkok in early January and she will advise further.

4. A separate programme is being prepared for Madam Pérez de Cuéllar for the afternoon of Saturday, 26 January. Would Madam wish to join you for the possible trip to KID Refugee Camp on Sunday, 27 January?. Likewise, would Madam wish to be with you for the visit to the ESCAP offices on the morning of Thursday, 31 January or would she prefer to have a separate programme drawn up? The wives of Amb. Kasemsri and Mr. Kibria would be on hand to accompany her throughout.

3. We have sought the advice of Mrs. Weil's Office regarding the lease-signing ceremony, suggested for Saturday, 26 January. ESCAP and the Thai authorities have not yet agreed on the terms of a new lease for the land beneath the UN buildings. It is felt, however, that the possibility of your signing the new agreement could precipitate a speedy conclusion to the negotiations. You may wish, therefore, to agree tentatively to sign the new agreement, if it is ready. Mrs. Weil will be in Bangkok in early January and she will advise further.

4. A separate programme is being prepared for Madam Pérez de Cuéllar for the afternoon of Saturday, 26 January. Would Madam wish to join you for the possible trip to KID Refugee Camp on Sunday, 27 January?. Likewise, would Madam wish to be with you for the visit to the ESCAP offices on the morning of Thursday, 31 January or would she prefer to have a separate programme drawn up? The wives of Amb. Kasemsri and Mr. Kibria would be on hand to accompany her throughout.

CONFIDENTIAL

Note for the file

At his request, Ambassador Thiounn Prasith, Permanent Representative of Democratic Kampuchea to the United Nations, came to see me at 11.00 am on Friday, 28 December 1984.

He stated that he had been asked to convey to the Secretary-General, through me, the wish of His Highness Prince Norodom Sihanouk to welcome the Secretary-General in the "liberated zone" at the time of the latter's forthcoming visit to Southeast Asia. Once a positive indication was received, the Prince would send an official invitation. I promised to transmit this information to the Secretary-General, who would be returning to Headquarters around 10 January 1985.

My own feeling was that, as the Governments of the countries the Secretary-General intended to visit under the present plans had already been formally informed of the dates and times of his itinerary, it would be difficult to foresee any changes - particularly because of the problems associated with re-scheduling when using commercial flights. However, I was sure that the Secretary-General would very much appreciate the kind invitation by His Royal Highness and I would be in a position to give his response upon the Secretary-General's return to New York.

Ambassador Thiounn then expressed the hope that he could meet with the Secretary-General personally, to brief on his recent visit to the "liberated zone" and to obtain the response to Prince Sihanouk's invitation.

Additional Note for the Secretary-General

Special Issues relating to UN Operations in Thailand

1. The UNDP Resident Representative/Resident Co-ordinator in Bangkok, Mr. Winston Prattley, is also Director of UN Border Relief Operations, a role that he carries out under the aegis of the Secretary-General's Office, and the Office of the Secretary-General's Special Representative for Co-ordination of Kampuchean Humanitarian Assistance Programmes.

The recent intensive activity at the border, the security ramifications therein with special respect to international and voluntary personnel, and the relationship between the roles of Mr. Kunugi and Mr. Prattley, may come up in the course of the Secretary-General's visit.

2. The Secretary-General may receive a separate brief regarding the arrest and detention of a UNU expert on mission Dr. Sulak Sivaraksa on special service agreement who is charged with "lesse majeste" for writing a book critical of the Thai monarchy. Mr. Prattley, in his capacity as Resident Co-ordinator, has made representation to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as per the UN Convention of Privileges and Immunities. A closed trial is presently being conducted, with UN being granted observer status.

Dear Mr. Kibria,

Thank you for your letter of 29 March, which was awaiting me on my return to United Nations Headquarters from Europe.

I am glad we had the chance of seeing each other, however briefly, when you were in New York. I share your disappointment that my schedule did not permit a discussion of ESCAP's activities and the problems of South-East Asia. Mr. Ahmed and Mr. Dayal did, however, inform me fully of their conversations with you.

As to the possibility of my coming to ESCAP Headquarters, you may be assured that I should like to pay a visit at the earliest appropriate opportunity. I do, however, need to consider the timing rather carefully, as my visit to Bangkok would have to be planned in the broader context of the political situation prevailing in South-East Asia and be combined with discussions elsewhere in the area. I made the same point to the Prime Minister of Thailand when he visited me recently in New York.

I do hope that the meetings of the Commission in Tokyo led to the concrete results that you desired. The theme that you set for the session, "Technology for Development", certainly has great relevance and possibilities.

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

Javier Pérez de Cuéllar

CONFIDENTIAL

Note for the Secretary-General

Subject : Proposed trip to Southeast Asia

Mr. de Olivares has informed me that, during his recent visit to New York, Mr. Kibria had strongly urged that you visit ESCAP, in Bangkok, this year, and that you wished to have my views. In response to my query as to whether there were any outstanding invitations from countries in the region, he indicated that you had received invitations from Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand.

In view of the situation in the region and your involvement in the search for a settlement of the Kampuchean problem, my feeling is that a visit to any of the ASEAN countries would have to be balanced by a visit to Viet Nam, although it would be necessary to avoid raising undue expectations.

During his upcoming meeting with you on 14 April, the Prime Minister of Thailand is likely to recall his Government's invitation. As you are aware, Thailand has takenaa strong stand on the Kampuchean issue and considers itself as the "frontline" State" in the region. It has granted temporary asylum to a large number of Indochinese refugees over the last few years and co-operates with UNBRO in the implementation of the Humanitarian Assistance Programme to the Kampuchean people. It also provides the regional headquarters for ESCAP. For these reasons, Thailand expects to be included in your first visit to the region as Secretary-General. On the occasion of your visit to Bangkok, the Thai authorities may also suggest a tour of some refugee camps. While a visit to the UNHCR holding centre would be acceptable, a tour of the border encampments could raise political difficulties and should therefore be avoided.

A visit to Kuala Lumpur may also be justified by the fact that Malaysia is scheduled to take over the Chairmanship of the ASEAN Standing Committee, following the annual Ministerial Conference to be held in Jakarta on 9-10 July. You could then explain to the Philippines and other ASEAN countries who may invite you subsequently that, since time constraints prevent you from visiting all of them on this occasion, you have chosen to go to Malaysia, on the understanding that it would be able to speak on behalf of ASEAN.

Finally, for the visit to Viet Nam, it would be necessary to take into account the fact that the only direct flights between Hanoi and Bangkok are on Wednesdays and Fridays.
