

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

16-05998

2 July 2016

Excellency,

I wish to extend my sincere condolences to the Government and the people of Trinidad and Tobago on the passing of His Excellency Mr. Patrick Manning. My thoughts are with Mr. Manning's wife, Hazel, and with his family.

Prime Minister Manning will be remembered for his outstanding contribution toward enhancing democratic governance in the Caribbean region, for which he was recognized with several awards.

On a personal level, it was a privilege for me to work with Mr. Manning on many occasions, both in New York, in Port of Spain and in the context of various international meetings.

Trinidad and Tobago and the Caribbean have lost a well-respected leader committed to developing his country and the region and enhancing the lives of its people. I am among many who will honour the legacy of his distinguished contributions to the United Nations community.

Please accept, Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

Excellency,

I wish to extend my sincere condolences to the Government and the people of Trinidad and Tobago on the passing of His Excellency Mr. Patrick Manning. My thoughts are with Mr. Manning's wife, Hazel, and family.

Prime Minister Manning's abilities as a leader were beyond doubt. They were underscored by his outstanding work toward enhancing democratic governance in the Caribbean region, for which he was recognized with several awards, including the "Democracy Prize" from the Guyana Institute for Democracy.

For me personally, it was a privilege to work with Mr. Manning on many occasions, both in New York, in Port of Spain and in the context of various international meetings.

Trinidad and Tobago and the Caribbean have lost a well-respected leader committed to developing his country and the region and enhancing the lives of its people. I am among many who will honour the legacy of his distinguished contributions to the United Nations community.

I take this opportunity to reiterate to your Excellency the assurances of my highest and distinguished consideration.
