THE DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL

1 December 2015

Excellency,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter dated 20 November 2015, inviting him to send a video message to the opening ceremony of the second World Internet Conference, which will be held in Wuzhen from 16 to 18 December 2015.

I would like to inform you that, due to pressing demands already on his schedule, the Secretary-General will be unable to record a video message for the ceremony. However, I am pleased to inform that Under-Secretary-General for Economic and Social Affairs, Mr. WU Hongbo, will represent him at this important event and deliver a message to participants on his behalf. The office of Mr. WU will continue to liaise with your office to discuss the details of his participation.

I wish to take this opportunity to convey the best wishes of the Secretary-General for a successful event.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dear DESA Colleagues,

With reference to the event above mentioned, the SG's schedule is still in flux. Could you kindly recommend whether (1) the SG's participation is warranted in case SG is available, (2) if he is not, a representative and/or (3) a message would be in order, or (4) it should simply be declined?

Grateful if you could send your recommendation by 20 November please.

Subject: Invitation from China regarding World Internet Conference from 16-18 Dec

Dear Aminata,

This is Yue writing from Chinese Mission. I hope this email finds you well.

The Chinese Government is holding the second "World Internet Conference" in Wuzhen, Zhejiang Province of China, from 16 to 18 December 2015. H.E. Mr. Xi Jinping, President of China will attend and deliver remarks at the opening ceremony of the Conference.

Given UN's important role in promoting the development of the internet and H.E Mr. Ban Ki-moon's personal dedication to internet related issue, the Organizing Committee of the "World Internet Conference" sincerely invites H.E Mr. Ban Ki-moon to attend and deliver remarks at the opening ceremony of the Conference, together with H.E. Mr. Xi Jinping. If Mr. Ban could not attend the conference, a video message from His Excellency to the conference will be greatly appreciated.

I just wanted to give you a heads up on this issue and convey some information on the invitation. My PR will talk to Mr. Ban regarding this invitation when he meets Mr. Ban personally in the coming days in some occasion at the UN. Official Note Verbale from Chinese Mission will follow in due course.

Hope to get acknowledgement from you of the receipt of this email. Thank you.

Regards,

Xiao Yue
