Dear Mr. Ki-moon, Ms. Perceval, and Monsieur Ladsous:

We, the undersigned, hereby petition the United Nations to appeal for your immediate action on behalf of the people of the Republique Centrafricaine (Central African Republic, C.A.R.).

We appeal to you to send U.N. Peace Keeping troops now to protect the people of C.A.R.

Please provide immediate humanitarian protection to the people of the Central African Republic. The people of the Central African Republic are under attack. Their rebel-led military-imposed government is incapable of protecting them. We appeal to the international community of the United Nations to do more than speak to peace, but to dedicate the necessary resources and troops to establish security immediately and protect the children, women, and men living in the Central African Republic from further attacks.

We are concerned world citizens, friends, Central African refugees, and fellow humans. Our friends and family members inside the Central African Republic are enduring atrocities at the hands of the rebels. Thousands of children have been kidnapped, raped, tortured, and forced into armed service. We will not forget the peaceful civilians who have no protection and who suffer. We demand action NOW.

The armies of Chad, Sudan, and Uganda must leave the Central African Republic immediately.

The Central African army has been disarmed, leaving the people unprotected from foreign troops and rebel forces. We ask both the United Nations and the African Union to deploy peacekeeping troops to the country immediately, in numbers sufficient to restore protection to civilians; and to engage the Security Council of the United Nations to provide sufficient resources to restore and sustain peace inside the country.

Sincerely,

Mr. Patrice Djinaye

Noreen Smith	United States	2013-08-21	How long does the world stand by and watch before taking action? We cannot remain indifferent
Marcella Willis	Washington, DC	2013-08-22	The international community has interests in stability in the region, but also a human interest in preventing systematic human rights abuses against defenseless people.
Nick Haglund	Grand Rapids, MI	2013-08-22	If you appreciate being able to live in a world where you can live, work and raise your children safely, than you must help the People of CAR, who want and deserve security.
Andrew Calkins	Oakland, CA	2013-08-22	I was a peace corps volunteer in the CAR and I care deeply for its people. I'm really shocked at what is going on there right now and nothing seems to be happening to stop it.
kevin bender	Nairobi, Kenya	2013-08-22	There is no national solution or regional interest. The UN must act.
Susan Bauer Gaina	Warrenton, VA	2013-08-23	I lived and worked in CAR for 12 years and am married to a Central African.
jodie elbiry	Cleveland, OH	2013-08-23	Lived in kouango, CAR 1995 to 1996 serving with Peace Corps.
George Heine	Pueblo, CO	2013-08-23	There is no effective government in CAR since the recent coup. Besides large scale human rights abuses to the people of CAR themselves, the situation creates a great danger for instability to the region.
Lisa Boyd	Minneapolis, MN	2013-08-25	I served in the Peace Corps in the Central African Republic and I really care what happens to the wonderful people who live there, especially old friends - if they are still alive after the years of senseless violence.
Michael Shereikis	Silver Spring, MD	2013-08-25	C.A.R. was my home for a year, so I know what hardships daily life brings in that country even without violent disruption. I can only imagine the help they need right now.
Linda Littrell	St Paul, MN	2013-08-25	Innocent civilians need to be protected from the obscene violence of those who kill and maim for their own selfish aims.
GLEN RETIEF	SELINGROVE, PA	2013-08-26	This is a huge unfolding human catastrophe. Why does the world not care, the way it does about similar disasters elsewhere? If people living in the CAR are pricked, do they not bleed?
David Boone	Alameda, CA	2013-08-26	because human life and dignity are important everywhere.
Patrice Djinaye	Worcester, MA	2013-08-27	My family has no protection.
Janet Meyers	Washington, DC	2013-08-27	Because the people of CAR deserve to have their human rights respected and the global community owes them this.
Loretta Paldino	Overland Park, KS	2013-08-27	I know refugees from CAR, and many of their loved ones are still in the country. They have never had stable lives. The situation is unacceptable there, and something needs to be done to protect the citizens of the Central African Republic.
Desire Banguendoh	Worcester, MA	2013-08-27	I cry for my country. It hurts me in the heart. The weakest people are being treated the worst. How can they kill my people like cockroaches who know nothing about politics. They have killed many many young people.
Laura Hoemeke	Carrboro NC, AL	2013-08-27	people are needlessly suffering and dying every day!

N. Peter Johnson	Hopedale, MA	2013-08-28	I too had spent time in the CAR and the WONDERFUL people there. The series of Presidents have been both corrupt and cruelly oppressive. The invasion of Sudanese, Chadians and Ghananese in pursuit of its fleeing impoverished peoples without regard for CAR's families is brutal. PLEASE send Peacekeepers!!
Christelin Bangandouzou	Worcester, MA	2013-08-28	I want peace in my native country: peace for the woman, the girls, the children. I need to in Democratic Govrnment in my country Central African don't want the charia. We are 95% chritians please do something very quickly this is sos.
William Witherell	North Grafton, MA	2013-08-29	These people need the UN's protection.
Lisa Shaver	Portland, OR	2013-08-29	I lived a lovely 4 years in the C.A.R. It is a small, landlocked African nation surrounded by countries in conflict. Those conflicts spill over the borders and for years have effected the people of CAR. Please help these lovely people.
sandsa ZANRE	Bangui, Central African Republic	2013-08-29	it's difficul to live in peace in my country
Joachim Fayani	Oakley, CA	2013-08-30	nous voulons que les rebelles étranger quitte notre terre! Et que la paix revienne sur toute l'étendu du territoire Centrafricaine; Pour cela nous demandons a l'UN de nous venir au secoure le plus vite possible! Si non, ce serait impossible pour la RCA de s'en sortir.
kevin feikouto	Bangui, Central African Republic	2013-08-30	on a trop souffert nous ne pouvons plus dormir la nuit par crainte de voir la seleka nous attaquer
Edith Witherell	North Grafton, MA	2013-08-30	The people in CAR have suffered too much and too long. We know several refugees from CAR in the US. They are kind, generous, hard-working people. We should not allow these crimes against humanity to continue. The international community should act immediately to save these people.
Christine Boyle	Chicago, IL	2013-08-30	No one in the world is paying attention to the atrocities going on in Central African Republic. The atrocities in other countries have made headlines thus promoting awareness & hopefully some action to end the evil human suffering in these places. C.A.R. has equally evil acts of torture, rape, pillaging & violence in this already poor country. We have become acquainted with several refugee families that had escaped C.A.R, literally running for their lives. The C.A.R. people are a kind, gentle & defenseless people. They work hard and appreciate all that America has to offer. They have many family members that could not escape in time & have been beaten & tortured. There needs to be action to end this unfathomable human suffering!
Georgianna Sgariglia	Worcester, MA	2013-08-31	Dear UN Friends, Please show the compassion I know lives in your hearts. The citizens of the Central African Republic desperately need our help. I pray for them and for those who will show them kindness and those that have the courage to do the right thing to help bring stability and peace to the citizens of the Central African Republic. Please do the right thing.
GUY BERTIN NDOUTINGAI	Bangui, Central African Republic	2013-09-03	We need protection of United Nations, for sécurité. We are suffering too much no-one help us, and our family are killed in spite of the forces of African Union in the country. We don't know where to go in such situation.
Ian Yau	Happy Valley, OR	2013-09-03	When violence and strongman tactics go unchecked, civility quickly disintegrates. If a nation is unable to bring violent criminals to justice, we look to the thoughtful members of the world to step in.
Carol Freeman	Minneapolis, MN	2013-09-04	The tragedy is too great to turn our back.
Erik Mc kassy	NY, NY	2013-09-04	Because that atrocity need to be stop NOW! It's enough...our people do not deserve that! And all those criminals deserve an international punishment.

Neil Friedman	New York, NY	2013-09-06	International intervention is the only thing that could protect civilian population of CAR.
Wendy Whitmer	Nine Mile Falls, WA	2013-09-08	International aid is the only way to curb the tragedy,
Sharon Hall-Smith	Florence, MA	2013-09-09	I lived in the C.A.R. for two years as a Peace Corps volunteer. It is a wonderful country with a lot of amazing people. Please help ensure their security!
Justin Beradje	Salt Lake City, UT	2013-09-10	The purpose for me it's peace in Central African Republic we us an people of Central African Republic leaving in USA we send all our complaint,our concern for no brothers and sisters suffering for those want to be president.We ask the United Nations the peace,peace for the poor remind and restore peace.Why United Nation and African Union where are you? Look how the poor Men and women and children leaving in Central African Republic about the foreign Armies all over Chad we look so far for peace.
Adelaide Meyers	Chicago, IL	2013-09-11	This is important because we all belong to one family - the Human Race. We need to protect each other and create a world of peace and plenty.
tonya landrum	fayetteville, AR	2013-09-13	The people of CAR are desperately in need of help.
Linda Danielson	Brussels, Belgium	2013-09-13	I was a Peace Corps volunteer there and it seems to be forgotten by everyone.
Dan Dostie	Mechanicsburg, PA	2013-09-16	Because murder, rape, and torture anywhere is just as wrong as the use of chemical weapons in Syria.
Edith Goliatha	Gaithersburg, MD	2013-09-19	Please bring peace back in the land. Enough with the attacks in CAR.
Nancy Tresp	Alexandria, VA	2013-09-20	I was a Peace Corps volunteer in the CAR
prisca bangandozou	WORCESTER, MA	2013-09-20	Because i want peace for the security and education of our children.
Evelyne Bangandozou	WORCESTER, MA	2013-09-21	Because the murders, rapes, and tortures need to stop
TEUTA KODRA	worcester, MA	2013-09-22	Please provide protection for people of Central African Republic.
Grace Hastings	Chiang Mai, Thailand	2013-09-22	Because i am a citizen of the world and concerned about any human rights violation, especially those egregious as this.
sulejman kodra	worcester, MA	2013-09-22	What is happening in Central Africa is painful,antihuman,inocent people cry for help.it is the time to send Peace Troops.
Alan Saul	Augusta, GA	2013-09-22	Fade i kiri na kodro ti siriri.
Brian Price	Bristol, WI	2013-09-23	Human decency demands that we stop ignoring the abuses that Central Africans have endured for decades. Please, let us try to take a step to reverse the sins of our intentional blindness.
