Your Excellency,

Please find hereto attached a letter of mine addressed to His Excellency Mr. Ban Ki Mon, UN Secretary General.

I would really appreciate if you could arrange the meeting I have asked for in the enclosed letter.

I am looking forward to your early and hopefully positive response.

Best regards,

Dr. Ferenc Somogyi
Former Minister for Foreign Affairs
of the Republic of Hungary

Regret!

on 23, the 56 out of country

congratulations upon your recent appointment to the post of UN Secretary General, I now have the pleasure of informing you that I shall, in my capacity of a trustee of the Board of McDaniel College, Westminster, MD., be traveling in the United States and shall be in New York City on Friday, February 23rd, 2007.

Given the very good personal relationship and fruitful co-operation between us it would be a great pleasure and privilege for me if you could spare some minutes of your precious time for receiving me for a short informal meeting in your office at any time on the above said date.

I am looking forward to hearing some good news from your cabinet and to meeting you in New York City.

Let me avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest considerations.

With my best friendly regards,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Ferenc Somogyi', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the left.

Ferenc Somogyi

Former Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Hungary
