Dear Mr. Hernanz,

On the occasion of your retirement from the United Nations, I wish to express my appreciation for the valuable contribution you have made to the work of the Organization during your 23 years of service.

During your tenure with the United Nations, you were responsible for providing quality interpretation from English and French into Spanish, were Chief of the Spanish Booth, as well as in charge of monitoring quality and overall professionalism of staff and freelance interpreters. In all your assignments, you have always upheld the high standards of an international civil servant.

I should like to take this opportunity to join your many friends and colleagues in wishing you good health and happiness in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Ms. Kanittanon,

On the occasion of your retirement from the Secretariat of the United Nations, I wish to express my appreciation for the valuable contribution you have made to the work of the Organization during almost 40 years of service.

Your career as an international civil servant commenced in 1967 when you joined the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific as a Stenographer and concluded as an Administrative Assistant in the Poverty and Development Division. You have always performed your duties with integrity, industry and enthusiasm, earning the respect and admiration of your colleagues, and upholding the highest standards required of an international civil servant.

I should like to take this opportunity to join your many friends and colleagues in wishing you good health and happiness in the future.

Yours sincerely,
